

The Kentuckian.

Established 1879. Vol. XLI—No. 42

HOPKINSVILLE, KENTUCKY, WEDNESDAY SEPT. 10, 1919.

SMALL DOSES

The opening of Bethel Woman's College today, under new management, is an eventful movement in Western Kentucky. This old institution is to be made a great school for girls, exclusively, the only one of the Baptist denomination in Kentucky. It starts with all its present rooms filled and other rooms being pushed to completion to be filled as soon as they are ready. Several girls came in yesterday who had not secured reservations and were not expected, desiring to come early to be sure of rooms. All who come will be provided for and it is hoped that at least 80 boarders will be on hand by the time the school is well under way. Next year provision will be made for 50 more.

Every once in a while we receive a new proof of the wisdom of the authors of the Federal Constitution. Suppose the treaty of peace and the covenant of the League of Nations had to be approved by both branches of the present Republican Congress. No foreigner with a grievance against the United States will fail of a welcome at the hands of the Republican members of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

Princeton is consoling itself with the failure to get the big shows with having played Walter L. Main's, "A good, clean, little show, that was patronized by one of the largest crowds that has ever attended a circus in Princeton in many years, and most every one was pleased with the performance." Well, if they got the Majh show there ought to be no kick coming. It took $1.30 to see the Robinson show.

Ed Morrow starts his campaign for Governor, in his second heat, by jumping on Stanley. He is evidently still smarting under the defeat of four years ago. Morrow is defying the lightning. Whatever his faults may be, there is no man in the State better able to take care of himself in a rough and tumble fight than Owsley Stanley. Morrow has pulled the tail of a very live issue.

Uncle John Shell, said to be 131 years old, took in the Lexington fair last week and incidentally "took in" $300 from people willing to pay for seeing the oldest man in the world. He is at the State Fair this week letting people see him and let us hope nobody will accuse Uncle John of working a Shell game.

George G. Quien, who informed the Germans that Nurse Edith Cavell was aiding wounded soldiers in is to die on a charge for rendering aid to the Germans. He caused a woman to be executed and few tears will be shed for him when he faces the firing squad.

Miss Adelaide Timmons at Indianapolis is suing to break the will of her father, former Vice President Chas. W. Fairbanks, on the ground that he was of unsound mind and unduly influenced by her brothers. She sues for one-fifth of $8,000,000. She was left an annual income of $15,000.

W. D. Coil drew lots with six other Madisonville men at Owensboro to decide which one should go up in the airplane with Pilot Skow and loop the loop. He drew the trip and says he enjoyed the experience at an altitude of 2500 feet.

Pope Benedict XV, dressed simply as a priest, left the vatican recently to visit his sick brother in Rome. He is the first Pope in nearly 50 years to leave the vatican for any cause.

Robert Brumfield who has been with the Kentuckian during the summer, will leave today for Lebanon, Tenn., to resume his law studies interrupted a year ago when he entered the military service.

Lieut. Herschel A. Long will return from Camp Taylor today, having been discharged from the military service. He will at once assume his duties with the Kentuckian.

Robert Hammon, aged 17, and Lida Mae English, aged 16, eloped from Cloverport, Ky., and Rockport, Ind., and were married.

Jas. W. Osborne, the famous New York prosecuting Attorney, was found dead in bed Monday, of heart disease. He was 61.

Former Secretary McAdoo has been employed for a salary of $1 to assist in the defense of the constitutionality of the Farm Loan Act.

PREPARING FOR DRIVE

BAPTISTS OF BETHEL ASSOCIATION ACCEPT APPORTIONMENT OF $450,000.

QUOTAS TO BE FIXED SEPT. 30

Christian's Part Is Approximately $246,000, Todd's Part $90,000 and Logan's $114,000

The Executive Committee of Bethel Association met Monday afternoon at the First Baptist church with a full attendance supplemented by many pastors and members from various churches. After a discussion at length on the apportionment of $450,000 as the quota to be raised by the 6500 Baptists of Bethel Association, it was voted to accept the apportionment and set apart Sept. 24 as a day of prayer and intercession in all of the 42 churches of the Association.

The Executive Committee decided that the apportionment of the $450,000 to the various churches would have to be made by the Association itself that meets at Guthrie Sept. 30, but each church is to be asked to accept a per capita apportionment of $70 and as much more as the members are willing to assume, in order that those "going over the top" may help the weak churches to raise the per capita apportionment. Nearly all of the pastors opposed an arbitrary apportionment without consulting the churches and the committee declined to assume the authority or to accept any apportionment not made by the Association itself.

The following churches are in Christian county:

Casky, Concord, Hopkinsville First, Hopkinsville Second, Locust Grove, LaFayette, Macedonia, Mack's Grove, Mt. Zoar, New Barren Springs, New Ebenezer, New Hope, New Union, Olivet, Palestine, Pembroke, Pleasant Hill, Salem, Sinking Fork, South Union, West Mt. Zoar, West Grove, West Union.

The following in Todd county: Armageddon, Bethel, Elkton, Forest Grove, Guthrie, Keysburg, Mt. Gilead, Mt. Vernon, Mt. Zion, Sharon, Grove and Trenton.

The following in Logan county:

Adairville, Auburn, Dripping Springs, Russellville, Spring Valley, Walnut Grove, Whitaker's Grove.

On the per capita basis Christian county's quota would be approximately $246,000, Todd's $90,000 and Logan's $114,000. Bethel is given the third largest apportionment of any association in the State, only Long Run (Louisville) with $800,000 and Elkhorn (Georgetown) with $600,000 exceeding it.

PURELY PERSONAL

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Parks, of Wood River, Ill., and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Pavey, of Kansas City, Mo., were in the city Monday traveling through Kentucky in their car. Mrs. Parks was formerly Miss Florence McCall, whose father Prof. T. S. McCall, was president of Bethel Woman's College in 1895, at which time she graduated from the institution.

Mr. F. S. McInnis, a young attorney of Moss Point, Miss., with his wife who is a step-daughter of Captain J. W. Riley, of Newstead, were the guests of the latter's family last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Kimmons and daughter, Anne, are visiting in St. Louis.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Smith will entertain with a boat party from Paducah to Florence, Ala., and return. The party will leave this morning on the steamer Paducah. Among the guests will be Dr. and Mrs. Mathers, Paris, Ky., Mr. and Mrs. Claude Clark, Hopkinsville, Ky.; Dr. E. E. Violette, Kansas City, Mo., and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Utterback; Misses Elizabeth Smith and Lena Utterback.

—Paducah News-Democrat.

GEN. PERSHING RETURNS HOME

Whistles Blow and Salutes Fired as Leviathan Docks at Hoboken--Notables Welcome Him.

GEN. JOHN J. PERSHING.

New York, Sept. 9.—Amid the din of thousands of factory and ship whistles, the United States Steamship Leviathan, with Gen. John J. Pershing and staff on board, docked at Hoboken early today.

Big Guns Boom.

As the ship came up the bay, guns boomed a salute and thousands of persons lining the shores of Long Island, Brooklyn and Manhattan shouted a greeting.

When the Leviathan warped into the pier the assembled crowd gave a tremendous cheer.

Gen. Pershing stepped ashore at 9:20 o'clock.

Waiting for him at the end of the gang plank was secretary Baker with hands outstretched and in an addressed welcomed him on behalf of the United States.

With Secretary Baker were Vice-President Marshall, General Peyton C. March, chief of staff, other high officials and a congressional committee. Others included Allan A. Ryan, Harry Payne Whitney, Cleveland H. Dodge, Mortimer Schiff, John D. Ryan, Bernard Baruch, Henry S. Davis, J. S. Replogle, William G. McAdoo and Hugh Frayne of the American Federation of Labor.

Following Gen. Pershing down the gang plank were Major Generals A. W. Brewster, J. L. Hines and C. E. Cummerall; Brigadier Generals R. E. Davis, Walter Bethel and F. Conner; Colonels G. C. Marshall, J. G. Quakemeyer, L. C. Grasecomb, R. C. Burnett, E. C. McNeil, A. Morenc and C. S. Babcock.

Pershing and his party boarded the patrol boat and crossed the river to New York where a waiting crowd gave him another vociferous welcome.

It was a proud moment for the great American soldier, but a prouder still remains. New York did not exhaust its welcome today.

Wednesday he will ride down Fifth avenue at the head of the First Division of the regular army, the first to go and last to leave, victors of the first battles ever fought on European soil by American soldiers, comrades humble in station, but who had offered their all just as freely in the cause of liberty.

General Pershing first reglimped his native land when the huge Leviathan, once the pride of defeated Germany, nosed her way through the mists off the Jersey coast. The General stood upon her deck and 30,000 soldiers were there to meet him. These stalwart soldiers were his guards of honor when Paris and London paid tribute to the American commander, and they will be his guard of honor when his own country's metropolis pays its full meed of praise Wednesday.

Gets Commission.

Just after the general walked down the gangplank at Hoboken, he received the first reward which a grateful country has offered him. In the name of the nation, Secretary of War Baker handed him his commission as full general in the American army, a rank held previously by only three men, Grant, Sheridan and Sherman.

Standing behind, and completely hidden by the imposing figure of the general, was a little boy trying to look very dignified and soldierly. He was "Sergeant" Warren Pershing, the commander-in-chief's only surviving child. When the general received his commission he turned to his son and handed him the document with an injunction to keep it safe.

The "sergeant" kept it safely all right, but later on, in the great crowd he got separated from his father much to the dismay of the general. When the boy was recovered his father asked anxiously:

"Warren, have you got the com-

STATE FAIR IN PROGRESS

PRIZE LIST LARGEST AND ENTRIES IN ALL CLASSES BEST IN HISTORY

TOMORROW GOVERNOR'S DAY

Entertainment Program Varied and Many New Features Have Been Devised.

Louisville, Ky., Sept. 9.—The Kentucky State Fair at noon Monday officially opened for its seventeenth annual celebration. The fair is fine, and the crowd very large.

The program for the week follows:

Tuesday—Military Day, with Adj. James Tandy Ellis, Frankfort, chairman, and D. B. G. Rose, Louisville, vice-chairman.

Wednesday—Louisville Day, Indiana Day, with Mayor Smith, Louisville, chairman; Robert W. Morris, Mayor of New Albany, vice-chairman and N. H. Meyers, Mayor of Jeffersonville, Ind., vice-chairman.

Thursday—Governor's Day, Good Road's Day and Manufacturers' Day. J. L. Stark, Louisville, chairman, and Geo. Beuchel, Louisville, vice-chairman.

Friday—Fraternal Day and Press Day. J. L. Stark, Louisville, chairman, and Geo. Beuchel, Louisville, vice-chairman.

The special nights of fair week have been designated as follows:

Monday, Woman's Club night, Louisville Times' night; Tuesday, Federation of Labor night, Courier-Journal night; Wednesday, American night, Anzeiger night; Thursday, Irish-American night, Evening Post night; Friday, Board of Trade night, Herald night, Saturday, farewell night.

MRS. CANSLER DIED MONDAY

Well Known and Highly Esteemed Woman of Crofton Vicinity.

Mrs. M. E. Cansler died at her home in the Crofton vicinity Monday morning, aged 45 years. She had been ill for some time and had undergone an operation in hope that it would give her relief.

Her husband and four children survive her. She was a member of the Universalist church. Funeral services were held yesterday and burial was in the Hamby cemetery.

Gold is found in Sumatra, the Celebes and in Dutch Borneo in beach deposits.

mission?"

"Yes, sir," replied the "sergeant" promptly.

"Well, see that you hold on to it."

Airplanes Drop Messages.

Messages dropped by a police hydro-airplane aboard the giant steamship Leviathan at daybreak, as she approached the harbor, signaled the beginning of the three days' reception to General Pershing. The moment the Leviathan was sighted steamships along her inbound path let loose their whistles and a screaming greeting as the former German liner proceeded to quarantine the din started by harbor craft, was taken up by the sirens throughout the city.

Pershing Makes Statement.

After the first greetings were over, General Pershing made the statement to the Associated Press: "There isn't anything of consequence to say in circumstances like these. It is overwhelming, overpowering. To say that I am glad to be home is superfluous. I accept this in the name of the brave fellows who came over and served to the best of their ability, making our success possible."

OPENING DAY OF BETHEL

GIRLS FROM HALF A DOZEN STATES ARE COMING IN FOR FALL SESSION

ALL PAST RECORDS BROKEN

New Dormitory With Rooms for 48 Girls Partly Open and Other Rooms Being Furnished

Bethel Woman's College, President J. W. Gaines in charge, will open its fall session today with more than 50 girls in the boarding department, the largest enrollment it ever had, besides there are an unusually large number of day pupils expected.

The faculty is stronger than ever before, with six or seven of its members full degree university graduates, giving the college its required grade as a Standard Junior College, teaching four years of high school and two of college work.

Practically everything about the college is new or newly remodeled. The new $30,000 dormitory is not quite complete. The third-story rooms are ready for the girls. The second-story rooms will be by next week. The basement is being concreted for class rooms and one-half is reserved for the swimming pool to be finished as soon as possible.

The dining room has been painted and papered anew and furnished with new tables, chairs, linen and dishes throughout.

The public or formal opening exercises will be held at 10 o'clock Friday morning, in the chapel, which will be attended by the Board of Trustees and Alumnae Association and many patrons and friends of the college.

PRESIDENT'S INVITATION

Bethel Woman's College will have its formal opening next Friday morning at ten o'clock. Its president extends a cordial invitation to the citizens of Hopkinsville to be present on that occasion to greet the faculty and students and to welcome them to Hopkinsville.

The college has held an honorable place in the education circles of Kentucky for more than sixty years, and numbers among its alumnae may of the most influential women of the state. Extensive improvements have been made in the college buildings during the summer and there is a promise of the largest number of students in the history of the college.

It is the purpose of the trustees and the president to make this college second to none in point of service and efficiency, one that will be the pride of not only Hopkinsville and western Kentucky but the whole state as well. You can make your contribution just at this time by the encouragement of your presence on Friday morning.

J. W. GAINES,

President

Faculty for 1919-20.

J. W. Gaines, A. B., A. M., President and Professor of College Mathematics.

Miss M. E. Lindsay, A. B., Dean and Professor of Bible and Preparatory Mathematics.

Mrs. B. F. Eager, Principal and Professor of English Language and Literature.

Miss Helen K. Smith, A. B., Professor of Psychology and Latin.

Miss Mary Montgomery, A. B., Professor of French and Spanish.

Miss Maude Arrington, A. B., Professor of Chemistry and History.

Mrs. Thompson D. Lewis, A. B., Professor of Expression.

Miss Mary A. Grissom, Director of Music.

Miss Virgil Sellers, Instructor in Violin and Business Course.

Mrs. Grissom, Matron.

Mrs. Mary J. Bassett, House-keeper.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Wadlington have gone to Chicago on a visit. Mr. Wadlington is agent for the L. & N. Railroad.

The Kentuckian.

Published Every Wednesday and Saturday Mornings by THE KENTUCKIAN CO.

Chas. M. Meacham.....Editor
Herschel A. Long.....Business Manager

Established as Hopkinsville Conservative in 1866. Succeeded by Hopkinsville Democrat 1876. Published as the South Kentuckian 1879 to 1889. From 1889 to 1918 as The Kentuckian.

Fifty-Third Year of Publication

SUBSCRIPTION RATES:

One year by mail.....$2.00
One year by carrier.....$2.00
Shorter terms at same proportionate rates

Advertising Rates on Application

212 SOUTH MAIN STREET.

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 10th

DEMOCRATIC TICKET

For Governor—Jas. D. Black, Barbourville.

For Lieutenant-Governor—W. H. Shanks, Stanford.

For Auditor of Accounts—Henry M. Bosworth, Lexington.

For Court of Appeals—John A. Goodman, Elkton.

For Secretary of State—Mat S. Cohen, Lexington.

For Attorney General—F. E. Daugherty, Bardstown.

For Commissioner of Agriculture—John W. Newman, Versailles.

For Superintendent of Public Instruction—L. E. Foster, Hopkinsville.

For State Treasurer—F. H. Turner, Wickliffe.

For Representative—H. A. Robinson.

For Railroad Commissioner—Frank N. Burns, Paducah.

Seven thousand street sweepers and garbage men in New York have formed a union and struck for 100 per cent increase in wages.

George Gaston Quien, on trial before a court-martial charged with having had treasonable dealings with the Germans and having betrayed Edith Cavell to them, was convicted and condemned to death in Paris.

A negro charged with an attack on the wife of a farmer near Mer Rouge La., was taken from the Sheriff of Morehouse parish Saturday by a mob of forty men and shot to death. Nobody thought to ask him his name.

Less than 40,000 American soldiers remained in Europe September 2, according to the weekly demobilization figures today of the War Department. The exact total was 38,784.

When James Alexander, a negro 13 years old, lost his log beyond his depths in the Ohio River, upon the Kentucky side, Roy Daviess, a white to the river and was drowned while vainly trying to save the life of his negro playmate.

Judge Ray has held that the nomination of Dr. Lewis Ryan, over a negro named Warley, in the Republican primary in Louisville, for the legislature, was valid. Warley contested, claiming that he had been counted out. A recount gave Ryan 95 majority. Some evidences of fraud were found but not enough to change the result. Warley took an appeal.

By the lifting of a ban in Austria there is an epidemic of matrimony among divorced persons. Within the last few weeks more than 4,000 dispensations have been issued for the marriage of divorced persons. This was virtually impossible under the old order. The dispensations have been granted under a constitutional clause of lower Austria, permitting such action.

A large body of Kanawha coal miners who armed themselves and started to march to the distant mines of Logan county, W. Va., were turned back by Federal troops. The purpose of the invasion was to force the unionization of the mines of the Guyan Valley district. The sheriff of Logan county also organized a large force of deputies to stop them at the county line. They disbanded and returned home by rail.

Representative Swope, Kentucky has introduced a bill to give one year's pay at the rate of $30 a month to United States Veterans of the world war in service more than a year, and $30 for each month of service for those in the army or navy more than two months. This is practically the same bill introduced by Representative Kincheloe. Swope is the young captain who was elected as a Republican in the Eighth District to fill a vacancy. He is hardly the man to introduce a bonus bill for himself and others.

SEC. REDFIELD QUILTS THE CABINET

Resignation Expected Since Recent Clash With Hines Over Steel Prices—Successor Named

Washington, Sept. 9.—William C. Redfield, Brooklyn, Secretary of Commerce in President Wilson's cabinet since the beginning of the Democratic administration in 1913, resigned Saturday, announcing that he was returning to private business. President Wilson has accepted the resignation to be effective November 1.

There was no official hint given with the announcement as to who would be chosen to take the portfolio.

Announcement of Secretary Redfield's resignation was not a surprise. Since his disagreement with Director General of Railroads Hines several months ago over steel prices his retirement has been expected.

Secretary Redfield stated that he resigned to give attention to personal business affairs.

Mr. Redfield is the sixth man to leave the cabinet during the six years of President Wilson's administration. Wilbur Marsh, of Waterloo, Iowa has been tendered the place by President Wilson.

SERGT. BILL RANKS WITH YORK

Made Two Hundred and Sixty-Three Huns Cry "Kamerad."

Nek York.—One Lieutenant Colonel, twelve other officers and 250 snipers of the German army cried "Kamerad!" to Sergt. "Bill" Donnelly, fighting Irish member of Co. B, 18th infantry, during the second battle of the Marne, and thereby placed Sergt. "Bill" up in the class with Sergt. Alvin York, Pall Mall Tenn., champion hero of the world war, it was announced here.

York, who in peace time had been second elder in the Church of Christ and Christian Union in the little Tennessee village on the winding Wolf River, killed more than twenty Germans, put thirty-five machine gun nests out of business and took prisoner 132 of the enemy, including a Major.

Donnelly, according to his official record, with a squad of six men, "surrounded" a chateau in which German

NERVOUS PROSTRATION

May be Overcome by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—This Letter Proves It.

West Philadelphia, Pa.—“During the thirty years I have been married, I have been in bad health and had several attacks of nervous prostration until it seemed as if the organs in my whole body were worn out. I was finally persuaded to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it made a well woman of me. I can now do all my housework and advise all ailing women to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I will guarantee they will derive great benefit from it.”—Mrs. FRANK FITZGERALD, 25 N. 41st Street, West Philadelphia, Pa.

There are thousands of women everywhere in Mrs. Fitzgerald's condition, suffering from nervousness, backache, headaches, and other symptoms of a functional derangement. It was a grateful spirit for health restored which led her to write this letter so that other women may benefit from her experience and find health as she has done.

For suggestions in regard to your condition write Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass. The result of their 40 years experience is at your service.

snipers were at work, drove them to their "bombproof," and then loudly called for grenades with which to blow them up.

The result was that all surrendered, fled out and marched back to the 1st Division lines under Donnelly's able direction, and won Sergt. "Bill" the French Military Medal, highest war decoration of France, and recommendation of the Congressional Medal of Honor, the highest military award of the United States.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

Soldier Patients Get Training.

Washington, D. C.—Reports for June show that of the 55,554 patients in thirty-eight general and base hospitals during that month, 26,458 were enrolled in educational work under the auspices of the War Department.

People in this town take the Evansville Courier not only because it brings the latest news first, but because it is really one of the great papers of the country.

The Kentuckian $2.00 a year.

CHRISTIAN'S TO CONVENE HERE SEPTEMBER 22

Hundreds of Visitors Will Attend State Meeting For Four Days Last Week in Month.

The State Convention of the Christian Church will be held in Hopkinsville Sept. 22 to 25. From 400 to 700 visitors are expected.

The meeting will be divided into four parts. First will come education, next the Christian Woman's Board of Missions, third the State Missionary Society and last the Sunday school.

There will be notable speakers for every session.

Among those who will take part will be Dr. Edgar DeWitt Jones, Bloomington, Ill., president of the National Convention, in Cincinnati in October; Dr. H. O. Pritchard, Indianapolis, former president of Eureka College and now secretary of the National Board of Education; Dr. R. R. Crossfield, president of the Transylvania University, Lexington, and Miss Johnson, head of the Midway Orphans' School.

There will be a luncheon in the Ninth Street church under auspices of the Men and Millions Movement and the annual banquet of the alumni of Transylvania will also be given there.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

We are authorized to announce BEN S. WINFREE as a candidate for City Commissioner for the City of Hopkinsville, subject to the action of the non-partisan primary October 18, 1919.

We are authorized to announce JOHN W. RICHARDS as a candidate for City Commissioner for the City of Hopkinsville, subject to the action of the non-partisan primary October 18, 1919.

The Georgia Way.

"Bud" Cosby, a negro, was lynched by a mob near Fayette, Ga., after he had attempted to rob the home of Mrs. Barney McElwain, near Aberdeen, and kidnapped her two-year-old baby. The child was found later in a briar patch uninjured.

MARKET BASKET

Prices at which retailers sell important staples to consumers in Hopkinsville are given below. Slight variations from these quotations may be found on some items at some stores according to the basis on which the purchase is made and to the grade of the item purchased.

Flour, 24-lb sack.....	$1.75 @ $1.75
Cornmeal, 5-lb sack.....	25 @ 30
Bacon, breakfast slice lb	45 @ 65
Bacon, country, lb.....	35 @ 40
Bacon, salt, lb.....	28 @ 30
Hams, lb.....	40 @ 45
Shoulders, lb.....	33 @ 35
Lard, pure leaf, lb.....	27 @ 45
Lard, pure leaf, lb.....	30 @ 45
Eggs, fresh, per doz.....	40 @ 50
Butter, per lb.....	60 @ 65
Sugar, per lb.....	11 @ 12½
Coffee, lb.....	45 @ 75
Irish potatoes, lb.....	6 @ 7
Sweet potatoes, lb.....	6 @ 7
Cabbage, new.....	8 @ 10
Cheese, cream, lb.....	40 @ 45
Apples, peck.....	90 @ 1.25
Oranges, per doz.....	50 @ 90
Lemons, per doz.....	45 @ 50
Grapefruit, each.....	10 @ 15
Evaporated apples, lb.....	17 @ 20
Evaporated peaches, lb.....	20 @ 30

Country Produce

Dealers buy at the following prices: HIDES—Dry flint, 30c; salted 28c; green salted, 22c fresh, 19c; sheep skins, 25c @ $1.00; goat and kid skins, 20 to 60c; horse hides, $500 @ $6.00.

WOOL—Washed, spring clip, 65c; unwashed, 47c @ 50c; burry, 30c @ 45c.

METALS—Copper, per lb, 9 @ 11c; brass, 7c @ 11c; scraps iron, 30c to 40c per 100 lb; aluminum, 16c zinc, 2c; lead 3c; battery lead, 2c; block tin, 44c; tinfoil, 30c; old rubber tires, 2 to 2½c; innertubes, mixed 7c @ 8c.

FEATHERS—According to color and kind, 15 to 45c. New Goose feathers, 90c.

TALLOW—Per lb, 7½ @ 8½c.

BEEWAX—Per lb, 35c.

WILD ROOTS—Ginseng, wild, $12 @ $13 per lb; golden seal, $4.00; pink root, 20c; mayapple, 5c; blood root, 7c; star root, 25c.

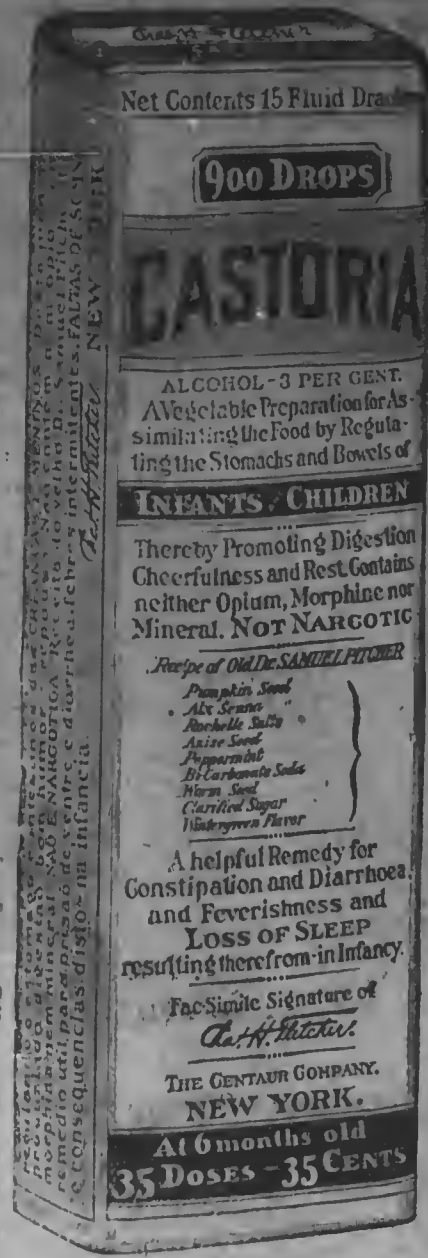

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.

Mothers Know That Genuine Castoria

Always Bears the Signature of

Chas. H. Fletcher
In Use For Over Thirty Years
CASTORIA

CLUB RATE

The Evansville Courier

Daily by Mail One Year Price alone

$6.00

--AND--

The Kentuckian

2.00

Semi-Weekly One Year Both for

$7.50

Save money by subscribing at the same time for the best daily newspaper and your favorite home newspaper.

If Sunday Courier also is desired add $2.50

For papers going by and in second zone, add $1.00.

All the News of Home and the World
A Winning Combination

ATCLARK'S

WHY not let us have your business? We can furnish you sugar and flour in barrel lots, will give you the best prices that can be had; also have bacon and lard in hundred pound lots.

WE carry a complete line of Fine Granite, Glass and China Ware; most anything you may want in these lines. Give us a call when in need of these articles.

GIVE us your business and we will appreciate same. Make us your headquarters when in the city.

WE buy Country Produce. Call us and get our prices.

C. R. Clark & Co.

Incorporated

Phones: 79 and 118.

THE KENTUCKIAN, $2.00 PER YEAR
-THE BEST-
LOCAL NEWSPAPER

THE RIGHT BANK

One of the most important factors in your business success is having the right kind of bank to deal with.

Too much care cannot be exercised in selection.

The all important consideration with this bank is first to safeguard the money of its depositors and to render them such service as to increase their prosperity and thus increase the value of the account.

We extend every courtesy to borrowers consistent with safety and will be glad to give you conscientious advice on any business problem.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK

SYNOPSIS.

CHAPTER XIX.—Isabel and George came back only when Isabel's weak heart warned that they were little time. Two years had passed. A disastrous investment in a new automobile had swept away Fanny's little fortune and with it a considerable sum advanced to George Amberson by his father. When the old major died it was found that the estate was hopelessly involved.

CHAPTER XX.—When his uncle went abroad to fill a consular post, at $1,800 a year and he himself became a clerk in old Frank Bronson's law office at eight dollars a week, George was lonely, indeed. The prospect of his future life with his Aunt Fanny is appalling, and he realizes, also, the full measure of his unthinking cruelty to his mother.

"The doctor said we must keep her placid," George said sharply. "Do you think that man's coming would be very soothing? My God! If it hadn't been for him this mightn't have happened; we could have gone on living here quietly, and—why, it would be like taking a stranger into her room! She hasn't even spoken of him more than twice in all the time we've been away. Doesn't he know how sick she is? You tell him the doctor said she had to be quiet and peaceful. That's what he did say, isn't it?"

Fanny acquiesced tearfully. "I'll tell him. I'll tell him the doctor said she was to be kept very quiet. I—I didn't know." And she pattered out.

An hour later the nurse appeared in George's doorway; she came noiselessly, and his back was toward her; but he jumped as if he had been shot, and his jaw fell, he so feared what she was going to say.

"She wants to see you." The terrified mouth shut with a click and he nodded and followed her, but she remained outside his mother's room while he went in.

Isabel's eyes were closed, and she did not open them or move her head, but she smiled and edged her hand toward him as he sat on a stool beside the bed. He took that slender, cold hand and put it to his cheek.

"Darling, did you get something to eat?" She could only whisper slowly and with difficulty. It was as if Isabel herself were far away, and only able to signal what she wanted to say.

"Yes, mother."

"All you needed?"

"Yes, mother."

She did not speak again for a time; then, "Are you sure you didn't—didn't catch cold—coming home?"

"I'm all right, mother."

"That's good. It's sweet—it's sweet."

"What is, mother darling?"

"To feel—my hand on your cheek. I can feel it."

But this frightened him horribly—that she seemed so glad she could feel it, like a child proud of some miraculous seeming thing accomplished. It frightened him so that he could not speak, and he feared that she would know how he trembled; but she was unaware, and again was silent. Finally she spoke again:

"I wonder if Eugene and Lucy know that we've come home."

"I'm sure they do."

"Has Eugene asked about me?"

"Yes, he was here."

"Has he gone?"

"Yes, mother."

She sighed faintly. "I'd like—"

"What, mother?"

"I'd like to have—seen him." It was audible, this little regretful murmur.

Several minutes passed before there was another. "Just—just once," she whispered, and then was still.

She seemed to have fallen asleep, and George moved to go, but a faint pressure upon his fingers detained him, and he remained, with her hand still pressed against his cheek. After a while he made sure she was asleep, and moved again, to let the nurse come in; and this time there was no pressure of the fingers to keep him.

He found the doctor standing with the nurse in the hall; and, telling them that his mother was drowsy now, George went back to his own room, where he was startled to find his grandfather lying on the bed, and his uncle leaning against the wall. They had gone home two hours before, and he did not know they had returned.

"The doctor thought we'd better come over," Amberson said, then was silent, and George, sinking violently, sat down on the edge of the bed. His shaking continued, and from time to time he wiped heavy sweat from his forehead.

The hours passed, and sometimes the old man upon the bed would snore a little, stop suddenly, and move as if to rise, but George Amberson would set a hand upon his shoulder, and murmur a reassuring word or two.

Once George gasped defiantly: "That doctor in New York said she might get better! Don't you know he's got better! Don't you know he's got better!"

"The doctor thought we'd better come over," Amberson said, then was silent, and George, sinking violently, sat down on the edge of the bed. His shaking continued, and from time to time he wiped heavy sweat from his forehead.

The hours passed, and sometimes the old man upon the bed would snore a little, stop suddenly, and move as if to rise, but George Amberson would set a hand upon his shoulder, and murmur a reassuring word or two.

Once George gasped defiantly: "That doctor in New York said she might get better! Don't you know he's got better! Don't you know he's got better!"

"The doctor thought we'd better come over," Amberson said, then was silent, and George, sinking violently, sat down on the edge of the bed. His shaking continued, and from time to time he wiped heavy sweat from his forehead.

The hours passed, and sometimes the old man upon the bed would snore a little, stop suddenly, and move as if to rise, but George Amberson would set a hand upon his shoulder, and murmur a reassuring word or two.

Once George gasped defiantly: "That doctor in New York said she might get better! Don't you know he's got better! Don't you know he's got better!"

"The doctor thought we'd better come over," Amberson said, then was silent, and George, sinking violently, sat down on the edge of the bed. His shaking continued, and from time to time he wiped heavy sweat from his forehead.

The hours passed, and sometimes the old man upon the bed would snore a little, stop suddenly, and move as if to rise, but George Amberson would set a hand upon his shoulder, and murmur a reassuring word or two.

Once George gasped defiantly: "That doctor in New York said she might get better! Don't you know he's got better! Don't you know he's got better!"

"The doctor thought we'd better come over," Amberson said, then was silent, and George, sinking violently, sat down on the edge of the bed. His shaking continued, and from time to time he wiped heavy sweat from his forehead.

The hours passed, and sometimes the old man upon the bed would snore a little, stop suddenly, and move as if to rise, but George Amberson would set a hand upon his shoulder, and murmur a reassuring word or two.

Once George gasped defiantly: "That doctor in New York said she might get better! Don't you know he's got better! Don't you know he's got better!"

"The doctor thought we'd better come over," Amberson said, then was silent, and George, sinking violently, sat down on the edge of the bed. His shaking continued, and from time to time he wiped heavy sweat from his forehead.

The hours passed, and sometimes the old man upon the bed would snore a little, stop suddenly, and move as if to rise, but George Amberson would set a hand upon his shoulder, and murmur a reassuring word or two.

Once George gasped defiantly: "That doctor in New York said she might get better! Don't you know he's got better! Don't you know he's got better!"

"The doctor thought we'd better come over," Amberson said, then was silent, and George, sinking violently, sat down on the edge of the bed. His shaking continued, and from time to time he wiped heavy sweat from his forehead.

Amberson made no answer.

Dawn had been parking, through the smoky windows, growing stronger; for half an hour, when both men started violently at a sound in the hall; and the Major sat up on the bed. It was the voice of the nurse speaking to Fanny Minafer, and the next moment Fanny appeared in the doorway, making contorted efforts to speak.

Amberson said weakly: "Does she want us to come in?" But Fanny found her voice, and uttered a long, loud cry. She threw her arms about George, and sobbed in an agony of love and compassion.

"She loved you," she wailed. "She loved you! She loved you! Oh, how she did love you!"

Isabel had just left them.

Major Amberson remained dry-eyed through the time that followed; he knew that this separation from his daughter would be short; that the separation which had preceded it was the long one. He worked at his ledgers no more under his old gas drop-light, but would sit all evening staring into the fire, in his bedroom, and not speaking unless someone asked him a question. He seemed almost unaware of what went on around him, and those who were with him thought him dazed by Isabel's death, guessing that he was lost in reminiscences and vague dreams. "Probably his mind is full of pictures of his youth, or the Civil-war, and the days when he and mother were young married people and all of us children were jolly little things—and the city was a small town with one cobbled street and the others just dirt roads with board sidewalks."

This was George Amberson's conjecture, and the others agreed; but they were mistaken. The Major was engaged in the profoundest thinking of his life. No business plans which had ever absorbed him could compare in momentousness with the plans that absorbed him now, for he had to plan how to enter the unknown country where he was not even sure of being recognized as an Amberson—not sure of anything, except that Isabel would help him if she could. The Major was occupied with the first really important matter that had taken his attention since he came home invalided, after the Gettysburg campaign, and went into business, and he realized that everything which had worried him or delighted him during this life time between then and today—all his buying and building and trading and banking—that it all was trifling and waste beside what concerned him now.

Meanwhile, the life of the little left group still forlornly centering upon him began to pick up again, as life will, and to emerge from its own period of dazedness. It was not Isabel's father but her son who was really dazed.

A month after her death he walked abruptly into Fanny's room, one night, and found her at her desk, eagerly adding columns of figures with which she had covered several sheets of paper.

"George! You startled me!"

"I beg your pardon for not knocking," he said huskily. "I didn't think."

She turned in her chair and looked at him solicitously. "Sit down, George, won't you?"

"No, I just wanted—"

"I could hear you walking up and down in your room," said Fanny. "You were doing it ever since dinner, and it seems to me you're at it almost every evening. I don't believe it's good for you—and I know it would worry your mother terribly if she—"

Fanny hesitated.

"See here," George said, breathing fast; "I want to tell you once more that what I did was right. How could I have done anything else but what I did do?"

"Oh, I don't pretend to judge," Fanny said soothingly, for his voice and gesture both partook of wildness. "I know you think you did, George."

"Think I did?" he echoed violently. "My God in heaven!" And he began to walk up and down the floor.

"What else was there to do? What choice did I have? Was there any other way of stopping the talk?"

He stopped, close in front of her, gesticulating, his voice harsh and loud; "Was there any other way on earth of protecting her from the talk?"

Miss Fanny looked away. "It died down before long, I think," she said nervously.

"That shows I was right, doesn't it?" he cried. "If I hadn't acted as I did, that slender old Johnson woman would have kept on with her slanders—she'd still be—"

"No," Fanny interrupted. "She's dead. She dropped dead with apoplexy one day about six weeks after you left. I didn't mention it in my letters because I didn't want—I thought—"

"Well, the other people would have kept on, then. They'd have—"

"I don't know," said Fanny, still averting her troubled eyes. "Things are so changed here, George. The other people you speak of—one hardly knows what's become of them. Of course not a great many were doing the talking, and they—well, some of them are dead, and some might as well be—you never see them any more—and the rest, whoever they were, are probably so mixed in with the crowds of new people that seem never even to have heard of us—and I'm sure we certainly never heard of them—and people seem to forget things so soon—they seem to forget anything. You can't imagine how things have changed here!"

George gulped painfully before he could speak. "You—you mean to sit there and tell me that if I'd just let things go—Oh!" He swung away, walking the floor again. "I tell you was doomed to answer him with the wistful, faint murmur.

"I'd like to have—seen him. Just once."

A superstitious person might have thought it unfortunate that Fanny's partner in speculative industry as Mr. Wilbur's disastrous rolling-mills, was that charming but too haphazard man of the world, George Amberson. He was one of those optimists who believe that if you put money into a great many enterprises one of them is sure to turn out a fortune, and therefore, in order to find the lucky one, it is only necessary to go into a large enough number of them.

"You ought to have thought of my record and stayed on," he told Fanny, one day the next spring, when the affairs of the headlight company had begun to look discouraging. Things do look bleak, and I'm only glad you didn't go into this confounded thing to the extent I did."

Miss Fanny grew pink. "But it must go right!" she protested. "We saw with our own eyes how perfectly it worked out in the shop. It simply—"

"Oh! you're right about that," Amberson said. "It certainly was a perfect thing—in the shop!"

"But think of that test on the road when—"

"The test was lovely," he admitted. "The inventor made us happy with his oratory, and you and Frank Bronson and I went whirling through the night at a speed that thrilled us. We must never forget it—and we never shall. It cost—"

"But something must be done."

"It must indeed! My something would seem to be leaving my watch at my uncle's. Luckily, you—"

The pink of Fanny's cheeks became deeper. "But isn't that man going to do anything to remedy it? Can't he try to—"

"He can try," said Amberson. "He is trying, in fact. I've sat in the shop watching him try for several beautiful afternoons."

"But you must make him keep on trying!"

"Oh, yes. I'll keep sitting!"

However, in spite of the time he spent sitting in the shop, worrying the inventor of the fractious light, Amberson found opportunity to worry himself about another matter of business. This was the settlement of Isabel's estate.

"It's curious about the deed to her house," he said to his nephew. "You're absolutely sure it wasn't among her papers?"

"Mother didn't have any papers," George told him. "None at all. All she ever had to do with business was to deposit the checks grandfather gave her, and then write her own checks against them."

"The deed to the house was never recorded," Amberson said thoughtfully.

"I did the right thing, I tell you!"

I did the only right thing! You think I was wrong!"

"I'm not saying so," she said.

"You did at the time!" he cried.

"You said enough then, I think. Well, what have you to say now, if you're so sure I was wrong?"

"Nothing, George."

"It's only because you're afraid to!" he said, and he went on with a sudden bitter divination: "You're reproaching yourself with what you had to do with all that; and you're trying to make up for it by doing and saying what you think mother would want you to, and you think I couldn't stand it if I got to thinking I might have done differently. Oh, I know! That's exactly what's in your mind; you do think I was wrong! So does Uncle George. I challenged him about it the other day, and he answered just as you're answering—evaded, and tried to be gentle! I don't care to be handled with gloves! I tell you I was right, and I don't need any coddling by people that think I wasn't! And I suppose you believe I was wrong not to let Morgan see her that last night when he came here, and she—she was dying. If you do, why in the name of God did you come and ask me? You could have taken him in! She did want to see him. She—"

Miss Fanny looked startled. "You think—"

"She told me so!" And the tortured young man choked. "She said—just once. She said 'I'd like to have seen him—just once!' She meant to tell him good-bye! That's what she meant! And you put this on me, too; you put this responsibility on me! But I tell you, and I told Uncle George, that the responsibility isn't all mine! If you were so sure I was wrong all the time—when I took her away, and when I turned Morgan out—if you were so sure, what did you let me do for? You and Uncle George were grown people; both of you were older than I, and if you were so sure you were wiser than I, why did you just stand around with your hands hanging down, and let me go ahead? You could have stopped it if it was wrong, couldn't you?"

Fanny shook her head. "No, George," she said slowly. "Nobody could have stopped you. You were too strong, and—"

"And what?" he demanded loudly.

"And she loved you—too well!"

George stared at her hard, then his lower lip began to move convulsively, and he set his teeth upon it but could not check his trembling with it.

He ran out of the room.

She sat still, listening. He had plunged into his mother's room, but no sound came to Fanny's ears after the sharp closing of the door; and presently she rose and stepped out into the hall—but could hear nothing.

What interview was sealed away from human eye and ear within the lonely darkness on the other side of that door—in that darkness where Isabel's own special chairs were, and her own special books, and the two great wicker wardrobes filled with her dresses and wraps? What tragic argument might be there vainly striving to confute the gentle deed? "In God's name, what else could I have done?" For his mother's immutable silence was surely answering him as Isabel in life would never have answered him, and he was beginning to understand how eloquent the dead can be. They cannot stop their eloquence, no matter how they have loved the living; they cannot choose. And so, no matter in what agony George should cry out, "What else could I have done?" and to the end of his life no matter how often he made that wild appeal, Isabel was doomed to answer him with the wistful, faint murmur.

"I'd like to have—seen him. Just once."

A superstitious person might have thought it unfortunate that Fanny's partner in speculative industry as Mr. Wilbur's disastrous rolling-mills, was that charming but too haphazard man of the world, George Amberson. He was one of those optimists who believe that if you put money into a great many enterprises one of them is sure to turn out a fortune, and therefore, in order to find the lucky one, it is only necessary to go into a large enough number of them.

"You ought to have thought of my record and stayed on," he told Fanny, one day the next spring, when the affairs of the headlight company had begun to look discouraging. Things do look bleak, and I'm only glad you didn't go into this confounded thing to the extent I did."

Miss Fanny grew pink. "But it must go right!" she protested. "We saw with our own eyes how perfectly it worked out in the shop. It simply—"

"Oh! you're right about that," Amberson said. "It certainly was a perfect thing—in the shop!"

"But think of that test on the road when—"

"The test was lovely," he admitted. "The inventor made us happy with his oratory, and you and Frank Bronson and I went whirling through the night at a speed that thrilled us. We must never forget it—and we never shall. It cost—"

"But something must be done."

"It must indeed! My something would seem to be leaving my watch at my uncle's. Luckily, you—"

The pink of Fanny's cheeks became deeper. "But isn't that man going to do anything to remedy it? Can't he try to—"

"He can try," said Amberson. "He is trying, in fact. I've sat in the shop watching him try for several beautiful afternoons."

"But you must make him keep on trying!"

"Oh, yes. I'll keep sitting!"

However, in spite of the time he spent sitting in the shop, worrying the inventor of the fractious light, Amberson found opportunity to worry himself about another matter of business. This was the settlement of Isabel's estate.

"It's curious about the deed to her house," he said to his nephew. "You're absolutely sure it wasn't among her papers?"

"Mother didn't have any papers," George told him. "None at all. All she ever had to do with business was to deposit the checks grandfather gave her, and then write her own checks against them."

"The deed to the house was never recorded," Amberson said thoughtfully.

"I did the right thing, I tell you!"

I did the only right thing! You think I was wrong!"

"I'm not saying so," she said.

"You did at the time!" he cried.

"You said enough then, I think. Well, what have you to say now, if you're so sure I was wrong?"

"Nothing, George."

"It's only because you're afraid to!" he said, and he went on with a sudden bitter divination: "You're reproaching yourself with what you had to do with all that; and you're trying to make up for it by doing and saying what you think mother would want you to, and you think I couldn't stand it if I got to thinking I might have done differently. Oh, I know! That's exactly what's in your mind; you do think I was wrong! So does Uncle George. I challenged him about it the other day, and he answered just as you're answering—evaded, and tried to be gentle! I don't care to be handled with gloves! I tell you I was right, and I don't need any coddling by people that think I wasn't! And I suppose you believe I was wrong not to let Morgan see her that last night when he came here, and she—she was dying. If you do, why in the name of God did you come and ask me? You could have taken him in! She did want to see him. She—"

Miss Fanny looked startled. "You think—"

"She told me so!" And the tortured young man choked. "She said—just once. She said 'I'd like to have seen him—just once!' She meant to tell him good-bye! That's what she meant! And you put this on me, too; you put this responsibility on me! But I tell you, and I told Uncle George, that the responsibility isn't all mine! If you were so sure I was wrong all the time—when I took her away, and when I turned Morgan out—if you were so sure, what did you let me do for? You and Uncle George were grown people; both of you were older than I, and if you were so sure you were wiser than I, why did you just stand around with your hands hanging down, and let me go ahead? You could have stopped it if it was wrong, couldn't you?"

Fanny shook her head. "No, George," she said slowly. "Nobody could have stopped you. You were too strong, and—"

"And what?" he demanded loudly.

"And she loved you—too well!"

George stared at her hard, then his lower lip began to move convulsively, and he set his teeth upon it but could not check his trembling with it.

He ran out of the room.

She sat still, listening. He had plunged into his mother's room, but no sound came to Fanny's ears after the sharp closing of the door; and presently she rose and stepped out into the hall—but could hear nothing.

What interview was sealed away from human eye and ear within the lonely darkness on the other side of that door—in that darkness where Isabel's own special chairs were, and her own special books, and the two great wicker wardrobes filled with her dresses and wraps? What tragic argument might be there vainly striving to confute the gentle deed? "In God's name, what else could I have done?" For his mother's immutable silence was surely answering him as Isabel in life would never have answered him, and he was beginning to understand how eloquent the dead can be. They cannot stop their eloquence, no matter how they have loved the living; they cannot choose. And so, no matter in what agony George should cry out, "What else could I have done?" and to the end of his life no matter how often he made that wild appeal, Isabel was doomed to answer him with the wistful, faint murmur.

"I'd like to have—seen him. Just once."

was doomed to answer him with the wistful, faint murmur.

"I'd like to have—seen him. Just once."

A superstitious person might have thought it unfortunate that Fanny's partner in speculative industry as Mr. Wilbur's disastrous rolling-mills, was that charming but too haphazard man of the world, George Amberson. He was one of those optimists who believe that if you put money into a great many enterprises one of them is sure to turn out a fortune, and therefore, in order to find the lucky one, it is only necessary to go into a large enough number of them.

"You ought to have thought of my record and stayed on," he told Fanny, one day the next spring, when the affairs of the headlight company had begun to look discouraging. Things do look bleak, and I'm only glad you didn't go into this confounded thing to the extent I did."

Miss Fanny grew pink. "But it must go right!" she protested. "We saw with our own eyes how perfectly it worked out in the shop. It simply—"

"Oh! you're right about that," Amberson said. "It certainly was a perfect thing—in the shop!"

"But think of that test on the road when—"

"The test was lovely," he admitted. "The inventor made us happy with his oratory, and you and Frank Bronson and I went whirling through the night at a speed that thrilled us. We must never forget it—and we never shall. It cost—"

"But something must be done."

"It must indeed! My something would seem to be leaving my watch at my uncle's. Luckily, you—"

The pink of Fanny's cheeks became deeper. "But isn't that man going to do anything to remedy it? Can't he try to—"

"He can try," said Amberson. "He is trying, in fact. I've sat in the shop watching him try for several beautiful afternoons."

"But you must make him keep on trying!"

"Oh, yes. I'll keep sitting!"

However, in spite of the time he spent sitting in the shop, worrying the inventor of the fractious light, Amberson found opportunity to worry himself about another matter of business. This was the settlement of Isabel's estate.

"It's curious about the deed to her house," he said to his nephew. "You're absolutely sure it wasn't among her papers?"

"Mother didn't have any papers," George told him. "None at all. All she ever had to do with business was to deposit the checks grandfather gave her, and then write her own checks against them."

"The deed to the house was never recorded," Amberson said thoughtfully.

"I did the right thing, I tell you!"

I did the only right thing! You think I was wrong!"

"I'm not saying so," she said.

"You did at the time!" he cried.

OPENING OF DEMOCRATIC CAMPAIGN

Hopkinsville Tentatively Chosen For
First Meeting of Campaign
On Sept. 20.

Democratic leaders are planning to open their campaign for State offices in Hopkinsville Saturday, Sept. 20, ten days from today.

This has not been decided definitely, but practically so. The opening of the campaign will be an all-day affair with barbecue and is being planned to attract Democrats from all parts of the State. Invitations are to be sent to the Governors of Ohio and Tennessee to make speeches, and some of the best speaking material that can be mustered among Kentucky Democrats will be on hand.

Democratic enthusiasm is at high tide, a result of the success of the platform convention held in Louisville Thursday. Leaders are "treading this air" in their exuberance, and wearing smiles of confidence. Every body did just the right thing in the convention, leaders agreed, and delegates left for their homes confident that the party ticket will win by a big majority.

Burglar's Rich Hauls.

Rudolph Royer, in custody in Detroit, according to the police, has admitted that during the last year he realized $65,000 in burglaries.

Valuables, authorities say he has promised to restore or that they have recovered, include furs in Toledo valued at $30,000; furs and merchandise in Cleveland, valued at $12,000; fruit jars filled with diamond rings and trunks of silverware.

The police declare Royer admits that the number of homes he entered the first three months of this year may be 500. Two women, one believed to be Royer's wife, who is held in Cleveland, are in custody in connection with the case.

A Bulgarian woman arrived in New York from Christiania had eight bottles containing perfume in god shape. Will sell at a bar known as attar of roses, said to be gain. J. P. Meyers, Hopkinsville, R worth $75,000.

E. P. MORROW SAYS STANLEY IS MAIN ISSUE

Criticizes Former Governor For the Handling of Bingham and Harkness Suits.

Pikeville, Ky., Sept. 9.—Former Governor Stanley was made the chief issue by Edwin P. Morrow, Republican nominee for Governor, in his opening speech of the political campaign here yesterday. In comparatively few instances did he refer to Gov. Black, his Democratic opponent scoring him for failure to right some of the alleged Stanley evils during the period from the time Stanley surrendered the office of Governor to become United States Senator to now.

About 600 persons heard Mr. Morrow, and he was applauded occasionally.

Mr. Morrow's speech which lasted for more than an hour, was preceded by a luke-warm attack upon President Wilson by Congressman John W. Langley, of the Eleventh district.

The Cheapest Tire You Can Buy Mohawk

Cheapest Because It Lasts
Longer
Buy Mohawk CORDS and
FABRIC TIRES.
Cayce-Yost Co.
Incorporated

For Sale!

Two Shetland Ponies, well broke with black spots, one mare and one horse. Two medium-sized work horses. A 11-Disc Empire Wheat Drill eight bottles containing perfume in god shape. Will sell at a bar known as attar of roses, said to be gain. J. P. Meyers, Hopkinsville, R worth $75,000.

MISSIONS NEEDED ALSO IN HOMELAND

SECRETARY GRAY OF HOME
BOARD SETS OUT SITUATION
CONFRONTING SOUTHERN BAPTISTS THERE.

$12,000,000 IS GOAL SOUGHT

This Sum Will Be Laid Aside From Baptist 75-Million Campaign For Work Among Negroes, Foreigners and Other Projects.

While $20,000,000 of the $75,000,000 to be raised in cash and five-year pledges by the Southern Baptists between now and December 7th will go to foreign missions, $12,000,000 will be devoted to missions at home. It has been officially announced. Home missions is regarded by the Baptists as quite as essential as foreign missions, the larger sum being set aside for the latter cause by reason of the larger field to be covered—practically the entire world.

DR. B. D. GRAY,
Of Atlanta, Ga., Secretary of Home
Missions for the Southern Baptist Convention.

"Twelve million dollars is a large figure when compared with what we have been doing heretofore," Dr. B. D. Gray, corresponding secretary of the Home Mission Board at Atlanta, declares, "but it is very reasonable in comparison with our ability and small in comparison with the needs of the Home Mission field."

Setting forth the particular obligation which confronts America, since the war has transferred the center of education from Europe to this country, Dr. Gray says: "This brings a new day of opportunity and responsibility to our people. Our schools and colleges must be strengthened and endowed. They must be made thoroughly Christian in fact as well as in theory. In this way we are to counteract the vicious ideals of Germany and her allies in the world war. Our youth must be trained on proper lines as to religion and ethics. This can be done best in our denominational schools."

Some of the educational institutions fostered by the Home Mission Board are the forty mountain schools, serving 3,000,000 residents of the South living in mountainous territory where public high schools are lacking. Fully $10,000,000 could be used to advantage in strengthening the equipment and teaching force of these schools, it is estimated, so great is the need.

Another demand of the home field is the 4,000 church organizations in the South which need assistance in the erection of suitable houses of worship, while more pressing still is the problem created by the presence in the South of 10,000,000 negroes. Speaking of the negro problem, Dr. Gray says: "They are of more vital concern to us than any hundred millions of people anywhere else in the world. Socially, politically, economically and religiously they constitute our greatest task and we neglect them at our own peril as well as their infinite loss. Racial relations are tense and the situation calls upon Southern Baptists for a worthy program in behalf of the religious uplift of our brothers in black. We must lead them in sane missionary and evangelistic work and likewise in the development of their religious life on sane and helpful lines. We need a large company of the best, wisest and strongest negro evangelists and teachers who shall help us to lift up their race and make them worthy and worth while as Christian citizens."

That work among the foreigners in the homeland offers the best and most economical opportunity for missionary labors among them anywhere, is the declaration of the Home Mission leaders. These foreigners are in the fields, mines and factories and are a vital part of our civilization. This work among the foreigners not only gives them the Christian religion, but makes them more contented and better American citizens, it is pointed out.

Great hopes for the future of the churches in the South are held out in the enlarged program of evangelism and enlistment which the Baptist 75-Million Campaign will make possible. The Home Board hopes to win from 300,000 to 500,000 people in the South who are not Christians during the period of the campaign.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED TO LAUNCH THIRD ROLL CALL

ONE million volunteers to help in the work connected with the Third Red Cross Roll Call, November 3-11, is the appeal issued by the National Headquarters of the organization.

Each local Red Cross chapter is interested in enrolling workers in the community who will make this Roll Call an overwhelming success. The November campaign has two purposes—to secure for 1920 as nearly universal membership as possible, and to obtain $16,000,000 for the completion of relief work abroad, undertaken during the war.

State campaign managers for the Lake Division of the American Red Cross have been appointed by MacKenzie R. Todd, campaign manager for the division. R. P. Grant is manager for Ohio, Clarence Stanley for Indiana and John R. Downing for Kentucky.

Under the leadership of these men the Lake Division, comprising these three states, hopes to equal its previous records. In the last War Fund Drive the division over-subscribed its quota of $9,400,000 by almost $4,500,000. In the first Roll Call these states were the first to go over their quota. In the second Roll Call, in spite of the influenza epidemic, the Lake Division managed to enroll over 1,235,000 new members.

During the war there were two annual Red Cross campaigns, the War Fund Drive and the Christmas Roll Call for membership. The November campaign will be the only one this year, and in succeeding years there will be only the annual Roll Call.

In naming this sum of $16,000,000, the Red Cross has tried to determine the smallest amount which will enable it to round out its work. It is believed that the end of our foreign obligations is in sight and, accordingly, the Red Cross is turning its chief attention and energy to the development of a clearly defined home program, which already includes systematic preparedness for disaster relief, a widespread nursing plan, continuing Home Service operations, First Aid instruction, and a Junior Red Cross program, all of which depend for their success upon large and vigorous chapters. For these reasons, the enrollment of members is the chief purpose of the November campaign.

It is the primary ambition of the American Red Cross to be of service to Americans.

WHY DOES THE AMERICAN RED CROSS NEED FUNDS?

Because—The Red Cross cannot withdraw the helping hand extended to soldiers, sailors, and marines until every one of them is at home—at work again, or receiving medical care.

Because—The medical and surgical supplies of the American Expeditionary Forces made available for use by the Red Cross by a recent act of Congress must be distributed and administered.

Because—The devastated countries of Europe cannot meet, with their own resources, the problems of sickness and disease among grown people and children, and the building up of man power.

Because—To be of service to Americans, the American Red Cross is preparing to launch its peace program of continued Home Service, First Aid, Public Health Nursing, and extended Junior Red Cross activities.

RED CROSS ANNOUNCES PUBLIC HEALTH PROGRAM

An outline of the peace time program of the American Red Cross has been given, following the announcement of the Third Red Cross Roll Call, November 3-11, for members and a fund of $16,000,000.

Foremost will be the nation-wide activity for the promotion of public health, and hand in hand with this crusade will go a vigorous campaign for the extension of the country's nursing resources.

In its public health campaign the American Red Cross will make an effort to reduce the high mortality rate and to improve general health conditions. Red Cross public health nurses will be assigned to as many small communities as possible, thus extending to the rural population the bedside nursing, school inspection, classes in hygiene and home nursing that have been so effective in cities.

In this connection it is planned to offer to every woman in America instruction in home sanitation, hygiene, care of the sick and dietetics, thus providing first-hand knowledge of how to keep the family well and what to do where illness or accident cannot be avoided. These courses are now being introduced into the public schools and colleges, and are offered to department store employees, factory operatives, girl scouts, nurse maids and others, fitting them to help combat infant and child mortality, malnutrition, unsanitary living conditions, preventable disease and epidemics in their own home.

The 7,000 public health nurses in the United States are far too few to meet the ever increasing demands for their services, and funds are needed for the establishment of scholarship for the training of nurses for this highly specialized work.

United States Railroad Administration

Director General of Railroads
NASHVILLE, CHATTANOOGA & ST. LOUIS RAILROAD
CO-OPERATIVE MARKETING SERVICE
THE MARKETING DIVISION OF THE TRAFFIC DEPARTMENT OF THE NASHVILLE, CHATTANOOGA & ST. LOUIS RAILROAD AND ASSOCIATED LINES WILL FURNISH TO PERSONS DESIRING TO PURCHASE THE NAMES AND ADDRESSES OF THE OWNERS OF THE FOLLOWING:

Sheep For Sale

Numerous inquiries from producers and prospective new producers of sheep have recently reached this office, concerning available supplies of breeding stock. The inquiries are indicative of forthcoming healthy increases in the number and quality of stockers and breeding ewes and bucks kept on the farms of the State. Local Government authorities are enthused over the outlook for the immediate growth of the sheep industry by reason of the beneficial effect of the dog law recently passed by the Tennessee Legislature and are positive that efforts to encourage and assist the farmers of the State in stocking up their lands are entirely justifiable.

In order to lend such assistance, this Division of the United States Railroad Association recently located in Virginia, Kentucky and other adjacent states supplies of the following numbers and breeds of sheep now offered for sale:

5 registered Dorset bucks, 1 year old; 5 Dorset ram lambs; 8 registered Dorset bucks and ewes; 125 grade ewes; 100 grade ewes; 280 grade ewes; 40 grade lambs; 60 grade ewes, 1 to 6 years old; 100 grade ewes; 60 grade ewes, 2 to 7 years old; 78 grade ewes and lambs; 20 grade ewes, 3 years old; 6 grade bucks and ewes; 8 grade ewes; 12 grade lambs; 100 grade lambs; 25 grade ewes; 100 good grade ewes; 15 grade Southdown ewes; 100 grade ewes, 1 year old; 20 grade Shropshire sheep; 1 car grade ewes; 1 car grade lambs and mutton sheep; 1 car grade lambs and ewes; 1 car grade lambs and ewes; 65 grade Hampshire ewes; 35 grade Hampshire lambs; 150 grade Southdown lambs and ewes; 67 grade Dorset ewes, 2 to 8 years old; 40 grade ewes; 100 common ewes, 2 to 10 years old; pure bred Hampshire bucks, all ages; 70 pure bred Hampshire lambs; 16 pure bred Hampshire ewes; 22 pure bred Hampshire lambs; 16 pure bred Hampshire ewes, 1 to 5 years old; 10 pure bred Hampshire bucks; five pure bred Oxford ewes, 2 years old; 100 pure bred Shropshire ewes; 20 pure bred Shropshire rams; 6 pure bred Shropshire buck lambs; 134 pure bred Shropshire bucks and lambs; 27 pure bred Shropshire ewes; 50 pure bred Shropshire ewes; 50 pure bred Southdown ewes; 4 pure bred Southdown rams; 55 pure bred Southdown ewes; 20 pure bred Southdown buck lambs.

The names and addresses of the owners of the above sheep will be furnished to interested persons upon request.

Breeders of Live Stock and Producers of Field, Garden and Orchard Products for Sale, Except Such as Reach the Market Through Established and Logical Channels Are Invited to Communicate to the Undersigned Complete Descriptions, Quantities and other Necessary Information of Such Commodities.

Instructive Literature on Alfalfa Growing, Silos, Lime in Agriculture, Peanut and Soya Bean Oil Manufacture Will Be Mailed to Any Address Upon Request.

ADDRESS—L. P. BELLAH, GENERAL AGENT.
Nashville, Tenn.

CITY TAXES.

City taxes for the year, 1919, are now due and payable at my office in the City Hall, and if same is not paid before October 1, 1919, interest will begin to accrue thereon at the rate of 8 per cent per annum, and if same is not paid before December 1, 1919, a penalty of 6 per cent, flat will be added.

Taxpayers are urged to call and settle at once and avoid the rush and the payment of penalties.
This September 3rd, 1919.

W. R. WICKS,
Commissioner of Finance
City of Hopkinsville, Kentucky.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

Miss Annie Marie Vizner, a French girl and mother reached Lexington Monday, for Miss Vizner to marry Tilford Wagers, a returned soldier. Wagers was away from home and the girl was greatly worried at missing him. A friend took them to a boarding house and the groom is expected home today.

The first installment of Lunden-dorff's syndicate articles appeared Sunday in many daily papers. Their publication strenuously objected to in some quarters will do no harm. The letter Sunday was a pack of lies nobody will believe. About the only true thing he said was that the Huns were whipped a year before they admitted it.

Dr. L. P. Hamilton, a Louisville dentist, did a neat piece of "bridge" work August 8, when he crossed over to Jeffersonville, Ind., with Miss Catherine Knight, of Lockport, Ky., and entered matrimony, keeping it a secret for thirty days.

Capt. and Mrs. W. C. Stair and child, of Middlesborough, Ky., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Kimberling. Capt. Stair was on military duty here several months in 1908.

Misses Mollie and Lena Kennedy have gone for a week's visit to Mrs. Geo. H. Kennedy at Mayfield, Ky.

In olden days people used to boil snails in barley water as a cure for a cough.

Honey is a part of the daily diet of almost the entire population of Switzerland.

The practice of law by women was legalized by the Wisconsin legislature in 1877.

German experimenters have made a textile from the fiber of a plant similar to the North American cattail.

Little Girl Dies.

A little daughter of Mr. J. R. Simpson died at his home in this city, before October 1, 1919, interest will begin to accrue thereon at the rate of 8 per cent per annum, and if same is not paid before December 1, 1919, a penalty of 6 per cent, flat will be added.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

In the United Kingdom there are said to be 1,500,000 spinsters with no hope of marriage.

One of the world's largest retaining walls has been built at Rangoon Burma, to keep a river in its channel. Fourteen million roses were distributed in London on the occasion of the recent Alexandria day celebration.

An English inventor's interlocking concrete piling is said to be stronger than sheet piling made of wood. The sound of a heart-beat is caused by the closing of the valves in the heart during the pumping process.

WANTED.

Position as practical nurse, reference given. Call Red Cross office. Phone 236.

CASTORIA For Infants and Children In Use For Over 30 Years

Always bears the Signature of Dr. J. C. H. H. H.

The Kentuckian $2.00 a year.

FOR SALE!

Farm of about
200 acres of good
Red Clay land near Julien, Ky.
Price $65.00 per acre on easy terms.
T. S. Knight & Co.

United States Railroad Administration

DIRECTOR GENERAL OF RAILROADS
NASHVILLE, CHATTANOOGA & ST. LOUIS RAILROAD
THE MARKETING DIVISION OF THE TRAFFIC DEPARTMENT OF THE NASHVILLE, CHATTANOOGA & ST. LOUIS RAILROAD AND ASSOCIATED LINES WILL FURNISH TO PERSONS DESIRING TO PURCHASE THE NAMES AND ADDRESSES OF THE OWNERS OF THE FOLLOWING:

For Sale!

Alfalfa seed; 25 bushels Alsike clover seed; cooking and eating apples; 50 bushels beardless barley seed; registered Aberdeen Angus bulls, cows and heifers, all ages; 1 registered Hereford cow, 3 year old, calf at foot; 1 registered Holstein bull and 4 heifers; 4 registered Jersey bulls, 2 heifers and 5 cows; registered Shorthorn bulls, cows and heifers, all ages; 40 bushels extra good red corn; White Milling corn, large quantities; Cotton gin complete; 20 50 saw, good condition; Crimson clover seed, large or small quantities; registered collies; Airdales and Scotch collies; 90 Angora goats and 40 kids; Common goats, car loads and less; Orchard Red Top and Bluegrass seed; 2 cars mixed Timothy-clover hay; 1 car alfalfa hay; 1000 bales clover hay; Red Top Hay; 1 Sorghum Mill; one second-hand Champion mower; 1 second hand Champion rake; 1 second hand McCormick corn shredder, four roll; 1 second-hand Rape silo filler; 1 second-hand Sawmill complete, with 50 inch saw; second hand grist mill and engine; Red Rust Proof and Winter Turf seed oats; Ancona cockerles, hens and pullets; also Andalusian; also Silver Campine; Rape seed; 25 bushels red clover seed; Abuzzi seed rye; Cheviot ewes and rams; registered and grade Dorset sheep, both sexes, all ages, any quantity; 50 grade stock ewes and lambs, any lots; registered and grade Shropshire sheep, all ages; registered and grade Southdown sheep, all ages; wheat, oats and barley straw, baled and unbaled, large or small lots; registered breeding hogs, all breeds, all ages; pure Bronze turkeys; Miracle seed wheat; cord wood.

TO PRODUCERS WILL BE FURNISHED ON APPLICATION THE NAMES AND ADDRESSES OF PERSONS BY WHOM THE FOLLOWING COMMODITIES ARE

Wanted!

Seed barley; canned corn; canned tomatoes; White milling corn; corn hominy; Honey, strained and in comb; 1 good gentle buggy horse; second-hand farm tractor, 12 to 20 h. p.; Kraut, Sorghum molasses; Red Oats; Chestnut, cedar, locust and catalpa fence posts; Irish potatoes; Sweet potatoes; Red clover seed; Abuzzi seed rye; Sweet clover seed; Hairy vetch seed; Currells Prolific seed wheat.

Breeders of Live Stock and Producers of Field, Garden and Orchard Products for Sale, Except Such as Reach the Market Through Established and Logical Channels Are Invited to Communicate to the Undersigned Complete Descriptions, Quantities and other Necessary Information of Such Commodities.

Instructive Literature on Alfalfa Growing, Silos, Lime in Agriculture, Peanut and Soya Bean Oil Manufacture Will Be Mailed to Any Address Upon Request.

ADDRESS—L. P. BELLAH, GENERAL AGENT.
Nashville, Tenn.

New Autumn Blouses Of Distinctive Beauty

Rich Embroidery and attractive color combinations are a summary of Fashion's dictates in Fall Blouses. This happily enables one to obtain attractive harmony in choosing of blouses appropriate for wear with one's new Fall Suit.

$5.75 to $20.00

The J. H. Anderson Company

Incorporated.

Autumn Millinery Modes

A world of enchantment this, in the realm of Autumn Millinery---for oriental influences are suggested in shimmering, embroidered touches and rich resplendent colors employed in entirely new ways.

Hats with unusual Brims are noted everywhere in this Fall Exhibit. Front brims turned back over flat crowns; cuff brims are slashed and then show alternating trimming; others are draped in adorable one-side turbans or laid in pleats to the high point of the top in smart toques. Materials include Duvelyn, Velvets, Hatters Plush and Kid.

Visitors to this Fall Millinery Exhibit will spend enchanting hours

NEW YORK VILLAGE FIRST FLYLESS TOWN

Nuisance Is Eradicated By Screening and Removing Garbage.

Saranac Lake, N. Y., Sept. 7.—Health authorities of Saranac Lake declare that this probably is the first "flyless" town in the world.

Health Officer Trembley reports that, unusually hot weather in June, July and August, there are hardly any more flies here than most places have in January, and that next year there will be none at all.

It cost the town about $1,000 to eradicate the fly nuisance, which was accomplished by requiring the garbage to be screened and frequently removed.

Dr. Trembley regards "swat the fly" campaign as useless and says that the only way to eliminate flies is to put a ban on all their breeding places and, he adds, this can be done.

Discipline.

Know you not that our business here is a warfare, and one must watch, and one go out as a spy, and one must fight? You neglect to do the bidding of the commander, and complain when he hath laid somewhat rougher than common upon you, and you mark not what, so far as in you lies, you are making the army to become, so that if all copy you, none will dig a trench, none will cast up a rampart, none will watch, none will run any risk, but each will appear worthless for warfare.—Epictetus.

Source of Republic's Strength.

Government in a well-constituted republic requires no belief from man beyond what his reason authorizes. He sees the rationale of the whole system, its origin and its operations, and, as it is best supported when best understood, the human faculties act with boldness and acquire, under this form of government, a gigantic manliness.—Thomas Paine.

Baby Natural Monopolist.

There is about the baby none of the subtle deceitfulness of the old, practiced bore who deftly turns the conversation to his own exploits and affairs. Baby simply takes off the muffler from his personal self. The entire household attention turns at once to his affairs. He monopolizes the conversation with his breathless account of his hunger or of his connection with the open safety pin—and that is all there is to it.

Chinese Cooks.

It is said by those who have employed them that the Chinese always cook by rule, if they have any rule to go by—following the receipt with the same scientific exactness with which the druggists put up a prescription. Hence their results are equally satisfactory. They never burn or spoil anything, nor spill materials on the floor; consequently, nothing that goes through their hands is wasted. They cook just enough and no more.—Hotel Gazette.

Proper Care of Palms.

To make palms thrive in a drawing room, sponge the leaves with lukewarm water once a week with lukewarm water. A little milk has been added. After this stand the pot in lukewarm water high enough to completely cover it for two hours. This is the only satisfactory method of watering; and many plants are killed every year simply because people neglect to water them properly. Pouring a little water on the plant is of no use, and standing in a saucer of water does very little good.

Superstitions of Seamen.

If a man is ill at sea, his most critical time is when land is first sighted. If he survives an hour after the sighting of land he will recover. On some trawlers whistling is forbidden—it scares away the fish. Other skippers believe that to wash your face in the middle of a trip will break a spell of calm weather.

WANTED—The use of a horse for occasional light driving. Good care. Call Williams, 373-1.

SOW NOW!

CRIMSON CLOVER
ROSEN RYE
ALFALFA
RED TOP
TIMOTHY

For Quality Seeds See Us
Cayce-Yost Co.
Incorporated

Last of His Class.

Ontario, Calif., Sept. 9.—Francis Lemon, 86 years old, said to be the only living man whose father was a soldier in the Revolutionary War, has arrived here to make his home with his son.

His father, James Lemmon, born in 1763, entered the Continental army when 16 years old.

The Kentuckian $2.00 a year.

TO-DAY IS CIRCUS DAY

Hey, kids; this Wednesday's circus day!

Of course you knew it! Every kid who is a real boy knows just els and the ponies and all the big and where it will be unloaded, and just how the elephants and the camels and the ponies and all the big cages and other circus paraphernalia will be taken out to the "lot" and how the tents will go up, and what is the most approved way to get under the side wall when the circus man isn't looking.

This is simply a reminder that the big Sells-Floto circus is to be here today, that it arrived early, and is unloading in the L. & N. railroad yards, and that the circus tents will be erected at the old circus grounds.

It is also a reminder that there will be a parade and two performances of the big show, and about everything that is a truly real up-to-date circus could possibly offer is announced for the diversified program.

There is a bully spectacle, full of life and color and spectacular novelties which the circus folks have prettily named "The Birth of the Rainbow," there is a great congress of riders and acrobats and gymnasts and clever men and young women who go flying through the air from trapeze to trapeze; and an aerial ballet, in which twelve pretty and shapely circus girls swing in the dome by their teeth; and trained elephants, big and little, and acting dogs and monkeys, and three rings full of the funniest clowns.

The Sells-Floto Circus is noted for its fine horses and its well-selected menagerie and the beauty of its costuming, and these features, it is announced, will be evidenced in its street parade which leaves the ground promptly at 10:30 in the morning.

CARRANZA OFFICERS HOPE TO TAKE VILLA

Galveston, Tex., Sept. 8.—Hope of capturing or killing Francisco Villa the Mexican bandit leader, is expressed in an official report received today from Manuel Dieguez, the federal commander, who stated in his communication that in the three days' fighting in the state of Durango his troops had killed 350 Villa followers and captured 800 horses.

For Quality Seeds See Us

Cayce-Yost Co.
Incorporated

GAITHER HORD CALLED HENCE

Died Monday of Pneumonia—Funeral Yesterday Afternoon At Riverside.

Gaither Hord, a well known barber doing business on Ninth Street, in the Phoenix building, died Monday morning, after an illness of a few days. Though his health had not been good for some time, pneumonia was the direct cause of his death. Mr. Hord was forty-five years of age and is survived by his wife and one son. Funeral services were held yesterday afternoon at his home on Walnut street, conducted by his pastor Rev. Everett S. Smith, of the Ninth Street Christian church. Interment was in Riverside cemetery.

MINNESOTA LEGISLATURE RATIFIES SUFFRAGE

St. Paul, Minn., Sept. 8.—The Minnesota Legislature ratified the woman's suffrage amendment shortly after the special session opened today. The vote in the house was 120 to 6. The senate ratified the amendment 60 to 5.

DIED IN DETROIT

Mrs. Mary Anderson Corrigan, aged 22 years, formerly of this city, died in Detroit, Mich., of stomach trouble, Sunday. The body arrived here, yesterday and was buried in Riverside cemetery.

CHILD CRITICALLY BURNED BY POT OF HOT CAKE FILLING

Joseph Witherspoon, aged 16 months, little son of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Witherspoon, was perhaps fatally burned Monday by pulling over a kettle of hot caramel to be used in filling for a cake. The liquid fell on the little fellow's bare feet and legs burning them in a horrible manner. His condition yesterday was such as to cause the gravest apprehension.

DR. ERKILETIAN REMOVES OFFICE

Dr. Erkiletian has removed his office from the Garnett building on South Main to the Hiram Brown apartment, opposite the court house. Phone, office and residence, 374. 43-4t.

Swinging flower baskets, window boxes that will look beautiful for months, at METCALFE'S.

FRANCHISES WOULD END IF ACTION WINS

Smith Will Start Proceedings To Force Company To Give Service.

Louisville, Ky., Sept. 9.—The city of Louisville will this morning file suit in the Chancery Branch of the Jefferson Circuit Court asking cancellation of all contracts with the Louisville Railway Company and appointment of a receiver to take charge of the company property pending the action. The city's step will be based on agreements with the company which, it holds, requires operation of a sufficient number of cars to meet demands of the public.

Announcement to the company that he would institute the suit was made by Mayor Smith late yesterday in less than an hour after it turned down an ultimatum by the Mayor to the company "that you promptly resume conference with representatives of the union of your employees and that contract be signed with such representatives which will guarantee the men reasonable and just working conditions."

Biggest Tomato.

Mr. R. C. Lawson has brought in to the Kentuckian office the finest tomato of the season, the specimen weighing more than two pounds. It is a pretty variety called the "Colossal," the seed obtained from S. M. Isbell, of Jackson, Mich. It resembles the Ponderosa but is smoother and without the pithy substance in the meat. Mr. Lawson is an expert in growing home-grown tomatoes and keeps track of all the new varieties. He says the Colossal is the best kind he ever raised and is very prolific.

Quebec's new dry dock, said to be the largest in the world, is 200 feet longer than any of the largest ships yet built.

THE EDISON DIAMOND DISC PHONOGRAPH

The World's best interpreter of Music.

THLYE ON INSTRUMENT

that stands the acid test of singing in direct comparison to the living artist.

Hear the Wonderful Instrument!

We have Period Models and Styles to suit every person and taste.

Come in and See Them.

Campbell-Coates Co.

Incorporated

DRUGGISTS

Ninth and Main Streets, HOPKINSVILLE, KY.

I AM GLAD TO ENDORSE PE-RU-NA

Glad to Try Anything

"Three years ago my system was in a terribly run down condition and I was broken out all over my body. I began to be worried about my condition and was glad to try anything which would relieve me. Pe-Ru-Na was recommended to me as a fine blood remedy and tonic, and I soon found that it was worthy of praise. A few bottles changed my condition materially and in a short time I was as fit as ever. I am now a permanent sufferer from Pe-Ru-Na." — J. H. Anderson, Knoxville.

Was in a Terribly Run Down Condition

Miss Becca Legold, 288 Layco St., Memphis, Wis., writes: "I had a letter opposite which in no uncertain way the gratitude for Pe-Ru-Na was expressed."

COAL MEN PLAN TO BOOST PRICE

Director General Hines Declares They Will Plead Car Shortage During Coming Winter.

Washington, Sept. 5.—Sharp differences of opinion on the probable coal situation this winter were expressed by Director General of Railroads Hines and F. S. Peabody formerly of the fuel administration, before the senate inter-state commerce sub-committee investigating increase in the price of coal.

Director General Hines declared the coal operators would lay stress on transportation difficulties to explain the increased coal price although, in his opinion, the railroads would be able to move all the coal necessary. Mr. Peabody denied that unduly high prices were being charged for coal and said legislation calculated to alter the laws of supply would not remedy the coal problem. He added there was no probability of a coal shortage this winter unless deliveries were held up by a shortage of cars or by labor troubles.

The mines of America can supply 40 per cent more coal than the possible demands of the country, Mr. Peabody asserted that the labor supply is adequate. He declared that cutting down of the railroad storage to 8,000,000 tons was reducing the roads to a sixteen day fuel supply which might result in confiscation of coal supplies by the railroads.

The director general suggested that the government retain enough of its "war power" to enable it to control coal prices until normal conditions will be restored completely. The transportation difficulties "will be kept before the public, exploited and perhaps expanded," Mr. Hines said, "in an effort to justify raising prices to as high a point as the public will stand and for which it should not stand."

OBEY TO BE DONE BY JUNE 3, 1920.

Assuming that the money for the completion of the Jefferson Davis memorial park at Fairview, is given in a letter from Gen. W. B. Haldeman, president of the Jefferson Davis Home Association, written to a friend at Fairview. Gen. Haldeman says, "All possible efforts will be made to have it completed and ready for dedication by June 3, 1920, the anniversary of Dr. Davis' death."

Gen. Haldeman's letter was written from New York, and he stated he expected to return to his home at Louisville about September 20 and soon thereafter would visit Fairview in person to look the situation over and would probably bring Gen. George W. Littlefield, the Texas multimillionaire who has been so interested and such a liberal contributor to the cause, and also Major Pirtle would accompany him.

Just His Fool Luck.

Bro. Judge Nick Vaughn went fishing one day last week. Just as he reached the First Street Ferry he saw that the boat was about three feet from the wharf. "Just my luck to miss the darn thing," he said, and rushed as fast as he could. He made a gallant jump and landed on the boat; but in alighting he collided with a fat woman and upset her. "I'm sorry he said. 'I hope I haven't hurt you, lady, but I had to make the boat.' 'You dog-gone fool,' the fat woman replied, 'the boat is coming in.'"—Masonic Home Journal.

Dawson Family Reunion.

One of the largest birthday celebrations and family reunions ever held in this section was that recently near Herndon on the eighty-fifth birthday of Mrs. Henrietta Dawson. There were 230 persons present, extending to the fourth generation. Mrs. Dawson is hale and hearty and met the guests at the door and mingled with them during the entire day.

$75,000,000 TO BE RAISED IN SOUTH

BAPTISTS ANNOUNCE PURPOSES
TO WHICH VAST SUM THEY SEEK WILL BE GIVEN.

STRENGTHEN CHURCH WORK

Special Effort of Denomination Along
General Lines Will Be Enlarged
And Made Stronger As Result
Of This Campaign.

Every general interest fostered by Southern Baptists will be strengthened and enlarged through the success of the Baptist 75 Million Campaign which is now well under way, and which will reach its climax in the final drive to secure this sum in cash and subscriptions during the eight days of November 30 to December 7. A period of five years will be provided for the final payment of these subscriptions but for the campaign to succeed, the sum of $75,000,000 must be subscribed within the eight days. Many have expressed the belief that the subscription will run to $100,000,000.

At a meeting of the Executive Committee of the Southern Baptist Convention the $75,000,000 to be raised was apportioned among the general inter ests fostered by the Convention, as follows: Foreign missions, $20,000,000; home missions, $12,000,000; Christian education, $20,000,000; state missions, $11,000,000; ministerial relief, $2,500,000; orphanages, $4,700,000; and hospitals, $4,125,000.

J. H. Anderson, Wealthy Knoxville Merchant, Who Is Chairman of the Campaign in the Baptist 75 Million Campaign.

The apportionment of this sum among the several states within the territory of the Convention has been announced as follows: Alabama, $4,000,000; Arkansas, $3,200,000; District of Columbia, $200,000; Florida, $1,000,000; Georgia, $7,500,000; Southern Illinois, $1,200,000; Kentucky, $6,500,000; Louisiana, $3,325,000; Maryland, $750,000; Mississippi, $3,350,000; Missouri, $2,925,000; New Mexico, $250,000; North Carolina, $6,000,000; Oklahoma, $2,250,000; South Carolina, $5,500,000; Tennessee, $4,650,000; Texas, $16,000,000; and Virginia, $7,000,000.

Here is what this big sum of money will help Southern Baptists do for the Master, as set forth by the Campaign Commission:

"It will equip more adequately and multiply manifold the 1,099 missionary workers of the Foreign Mission Board, and the more than 1,000 Home and State Board Missionaries.

"It will enlarge and raise to a better efficiency, the 133 Baptist schools in the South.

"It will go far towards meeting the expanding needs of the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary and the Women's Missionary Training School in Louisville, Ky., the Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary and Women's Training School in Fort Worth, the Baptist Bible School in New Orleans, La., a Theological Seminary for the Negroes, and will provide a first-class college for boys and girls of the mountain region.

"It will increase greatly our hospital service to the sick, open wider our arms to the orphans and provide a strong support for our aged ministers of the gospel.

"It will put Southern Baptists in position to assume a considerable share in the reconstruction of war-torn Europe and embrace many of the marvelous opportunities for service which thrust themselves upon us from all parts of the world, at home and abroad.

While $20,000,000 of this sum will go to foreign missions and thus be expended in carrying the gospel and its blessings to other lands, the remaining $55,000,000 will be expended at home in building up home missionary, educational and benevolent institutions and projects, of which there are a number in every state within the boundaries of the convention.

NOW SEE THE BIG ONE! CONING TO HOPKINSVILLE WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 10th

Wait
For The Big
One!

SELLS Watch
FLOTO For CIRCUS The MENAGERIE Big
1000 PEOPLE 425 ANIMALS
THREE RINGS
2 PERFORMANCES 2 P.M. 8 P.M.
BIG SHOWS COMBINED

Performances open with the Greatest, Grandest, most Colorful Processional Spectacular Extravaganza
Ever Attempted

"The Birth of the Rainbow."

3
Herds of Ponderous Elephants
With Beautiful Lady
Trainers.
3

Rings, Stages,
Hippodrome Track
Mass of Most
Marvelous acts ever Seen Under Big Tops.

Concert by Largest
Circus Band
Traveling With Any of the Largest Circus Organizations.

40
Clowns and everyone of Them Filled to the Brim With unny Capers.
40

WONDER STRE

PAGEANT

AT 11 O'CLOCK
RAIN OR SHINE

Down Town Seat Sale Circus Day at Campbell-Coates Co, Ninth and Main.
NO ADVANCE IN PRICES.

L. E. ADWELL PLUMBING & TIN WORK

Roofing, Guttering, Roof Painting, Roof Cement and Roof Paints of all kinds.

Steam, Hot Water and Warm Air Heating

PIPELESS FURNACES A SPECIALTY

Phones Res. 1142 Shop 270 Hopkinsville, Ky.

THE boys and girls of America are to play a big part in the feeding of the destitute peoples of the Old World.
The boys will help by raising more food;
while the girls will assist by learning how to become expert cooks. Our Fair is offering generous premiums in encouragement of this most urgent work.

--EVANSVILLE--

Centennial Exposition
Oct. 14-24, 1919

The Biggest Thing Evansville Ever Planned

WARM DEBATE AT CONFERENCE

Kentucky Methodists Reject Proposed Change in Apostles Creed.

Shelbyville, Ky., Sept. 6.—The proposed change in the Apostles Creed, substituting for the "Holy Catholic Church" "Christ's Holy Church," was rejected by the Kentucky Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in annual session here, by a vote of fifty-nine to fifty, after spirited debate.

The amendment was submitted by the last general conference.

The Rev. W. B. Campbell, new president of the Kentucky Wesleyan College, outlined his policy. The Board Conference of Education in planning for increased college endowments, and has created the new office of commissioner of education to which Dr. E. G. B. Mann, presiding elder of the Lexington district was appointed.

The Sidney Bulletin tells a new story of the shirker caught at his own game. It was a soldier, who said:

"Please Sergeant-Major, may I be excused from church parade? I am an agnostic."

"Don't you believe in the Ten Commandments, then?"

"No, I don't."

"Not even the one about the Sabbath?"

"No."

"Well, you're the very man I've been looking for to scrub out the canteens."

The total amount of cash ex-Emperor William had on his person when he fled to Holland was $162,500 according to a statement made by
Dr. Albert O. Suedekum, Prussian
Minister of Finance.

WE SELL ALL KINDS OF

F-E-E-D

"MAKE MEAT"

Hog Feed--It pays

"DAN PATCH"

Horse Feed--Best and Cheapest

"MILK MADE"

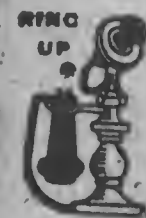

Dairy Feed

Hen Feed, Hay, Corn, Oats, Etc., Call and see us.

Forbes Mfg. Co.

INCORPORATED

WALLACE INSURANCE AGENCY

has REPRESENTED some of the Oldest and Most Reliable Companies for many years and can give you protection in any line of insurance.

We want your business and will be ready to serve you.

We will give you PROMPT AND SATISFAC-TORY settlements in case of loss.

OFFICE ONE NO. 395 Res. Pohne 537 or 1170
NINTH AND MAIN STS.

Subscribe for THE KENTUCKIAN
$2.00 a Year.

RAILROAD TIME SCHEDULE

ILLINOIS CENTRAL R. R.
North Bound
332 leaves at 5:35 a. m. for Princeton, Paducah, Cairo and Evansville.
302 leaves at 11 a. m. for Princeton, connects for East and West.
324 leaves at 8:05 for Princeton.
South Bound.
323 arrives at Princeton at 7:10 a. m.
321 arrives from West at 4:10 p. m.
301 arrives from East and West at 6:45 p. m.
TENNESSEE CENTRAL R. R.
East Bound.
12 leaves for Nashville at 7:15 a. m.
14 leaves for Nashville at 4:15 p. m.
West Bound.
11 arrives from Nashville at 10:35 a. m.
13 arrives from Nashville 8:00 p. m.
C. WADLINGTON, Agent.
LOUISVILLE & NASHVILLE R. R.
South Bound.
No. 53.....5:45 a. m.
No. 55 Accommodation...6:45 a. m.
No. 95.....8:57 a. m.
No. 51.....5:57 p. m.
No. 93.....1:01 a. m.
North Bound.
No. 92.....5:24 a. m.
No. 54.....10:05 a. m.
No. 94, Dixie Flyer.....8:19 p. m.
No. 56 Accommodation...9:15 p. m.
No. 54.....10:19 p. m.
No. 91—Due.....9:55 a. m.
No. 90—Due.....2:30 p. m.
W. N. CHANDLER, Ticket Agent

LOOK FOR THE NAME R. C. HARDWICK ON FINE GLASSES

Our satisfied optical customers are our best recommendation.

Their number runs into the thousands.

Ask them about our optical work.

R. C. HARDWICK LOOK FOR THE NAME.

KENTUCKY FAIR DATES

Following is a list of the Kentucky fairs and their dates, so far as have been reported to us. Secretaries are asked to report any omissions or corrections.

September 30—Paducah, 4 days.
October 8—Murray, 4 days.

A NERVOUS WRECK

From Three Years' Suffering. Says Cardui Made Her Well.

Texas City, Tex.—In an interesting statement, Mrs. G. H. Schill, of this town, says: "For three years I suffered untold agony with my head. I was unable to do any of my work."

"I just wanted to sleep all the time, for that was the only case I could get, when I was asleep. I became a nervous wreck just from the awful suffering with my head."

"I was so nervous that the least noise would make me jump out of my bed. I had no energy, and was unable to do anything. My son, a young boy, had to do all my household duties."

"I was not able to do anything until I took Cardui. I took three bottles in all, and it surely cured me of those awful headaches. That has been three years ago, and I know the cure is permanent, for I have never had any headache since taking Cardui."

"Nothing relieved me until I took Cardui. It did wonders for me."

Try Cardui for your troubles—made from medicinal ingredients recommended in medical books as being of benefit in female troubles, and 40 years of use has proven that the books are right. Begin taking Cardui today.

NC-134

MASON FARM BOUGHT BY RHEA

Sold By M. O. Kimberling At Big Advance Over Price Of

Last Fall.

Ira C. Rhea, who sold his farm on the Bradshaw pike a few weeks ago has bought the Mason farm of 565 acres, on the Clarksville pike from M. O. Kimberling, at an advance of $50 an acre over the price of $100 paid by Mr. Kimberling a year ago.

This is one of the finest farms in the county and in addition to the profit made on the land Mr. Kimberling made the crop of this year. It was one of the biggest land deals ever made in the county.

Had An Accident.

A French nobleman, while visiting England was invited to join in a fox hunt. He accepted and met with a slight accident, which he thus described: "I mount upon ze horse, he gallop away ver vell. We arrive at, what you call?—oh, a fence! Ze horse he gon up and den—I do not remain!"

More than 5 per cent. of all convicts in English prisons are women

D. H. Erkiletian, A. B. M. D.
PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON
Office Corner Ninth & Main
HOPKINSVILLE, KY.
Telephone 374 Day & Night

YOUR RED CROSS IS STILL VERY BUSY

Read What Your Dollar Is Doing

JUNIORS of today make the Red Cross of tomorrow!

In the membership drive during September the Lake Division of the Red Cross wants to enroll 200,000 school children and more, to help the Greatest Mother in the World. Red Cross Juniors have an extensive after-war work to carry out.

Junior Membership is only 25 cents. It is taken out in school-room units so that every school child can be a member of the Junior Red Cross. A world of opportunity for helping other children all over the world is open to Red Cross Juniors.

Even as far away as Hawaii children busy in school all day sell coffee by lantern light at night to earn money for their Junior Red Cross. The National Children's Fund to which is contributed Junior Membership fees has a two-fold purpose.

With it, relief is furnished to suffering children throughout the world and at home community activities expressing the spirit of the American Red Cross are fostered. In a word the Junior Red Cross aims to establish international understanding and good will among all children; to provide motives for purposeful and useful school activities and to inculcate ideals and habits of service.

HOW TO JOIN THE RED CROSS JUNIORS

UPON application for membership schools are placed on the department of Junior Membership mailing list at Lake Division headquarters to receive the National bulletin issued monthly by the Department of Junior Membership at Washington.

Upon payment of membership fees schools receive certificates or renewal cards which are their receipts for membership fees for the current year.

Service to others is the appeal of the Junior Red Cross today. The public school working with the Red Cross is the natural agency for spreading a new consciousness of the humanitarian obligation of men and nations toward each other.

WILL SPREAD EDUCATION

TWO phases of education present themselves in the Junior Red Cross after-war program. One is the providing of scholarship for children of disabled soldiers, sailors and marines who wish to attend schools of the Federal Board for Vocational Education.

The purpose of the scholarship is to furnish a sum of money to keep children from fourteen to sixteen years old out of industry for a few years longer than family finances permit and to make it possible for them to have added vocational training to fit them for self-support.

In this the Red Cross will be co-operating with the Vocational Board which has an extensive program well under way for providing training for disabled service men.

The other educational aim of the Junior Red Cross is to develop among children of all nations understanding of social, industrial and commercial conditions as they exist and will develop in the future.

To meet these needs the Red Cross has compiled a series of graded lessons which teachers may present to their pupils in the schools. These deal with geography, customs, occupations and other affairs peculiar to each country, and are prepared to give a basic understanding of the world as it is in process of change today.

School teachers who have completed the standard Red Cross First Aid course and hold a certificate from National Headquarters will be qualified to give this instruction in their schools this fall.

NOTED CITIZENS ENDORSE JUNIOR PEACE PROGRAM

GOVERNOR JAMES M. COX of Ohio says concerning the new program: "The purpose and plan of the Junior Red Cross appeals to me greatly. Development of international understanding and good will can be given no place in a comparable measure with the undertaking among children."

"I have examined your plans with interest," writes Governor J. P. Goodrich of Indiana, "and it gives me pleasure, indeed, to endorse the proposed work of our school children to assist in relieving suffering in Europe."

V. O. Gilbert, State Superintendent of Schools for Kentucky, endorses the plan as being worth while from the material side but of greatest value from its educational side in the development of character.

IS THERE A JUNIOR RED CROSS AUXILIARY IN EVERY SCHOOL IN YOUR COUNTY?

WRITE TO THE DEPARTMENT OF JUNIOR MEMBERSHIP, LAKE DIVISION HEADQUARTERS, 2157 EUCLID AVE., CLEVELAND, OHIO, FOR THE NEW ORGANIZATION GUIDE FOR JUNIOR RED CROSS AUXILIARIES.

"Grace Elder and her Lion Cubs with the Sells-Floto Circus Here Today."

$15,000 SUIT AGAINST THE L. & N. RAILROAD CO.

J. B. Allensworth, Hopkinsville attorney, was in the city Thursday gathering data concerning the tragic death of a young Christian county man who was killed on the Arch St. trestle several months past by train No. 93. It will be remembered that the boy was said to have been trying to cross the trestle at the South end when he apparently fell between the ties and could not extricate himself before he was hit by the train. J. H. Overton, of near Crofton, administrator, has brought suit against the L. & N. railroad company for $15,000. The trial will likely be held at the October term of the Christian county court.—Madisonville Messenger.

Family Reunion Luncheon.
Mr. and Mrs. John M. Major gave a luncheon to 49 of their relatives at their home near the city Sunday. It was a family reunion, most of the guests driving to the Major home after church. The bountiful meal was served out in the lawn, consisting in part of roast meats, three carcasses being provided for the "kin folks" most of whom proved to be hungry and hearty eaters. Mr. and Mrs. Major made ideal entertainers and all of their guests were indebted to them for a delightful occasion.

Rev. Wm. Lytle, of Perry county, aged 71, is the father of 28 children by four wives, all named Sallie. The present one is 26 years old and the mother of nine of his children, including 3 sets of twins. In his early life Lytle was a high roller and served a term in the penitentiary, where he was converted and educated 50 years ago. In addition to being a preacher he works regularly in a coal mine.

WORLD'S OLDEST MAN TO VISIT STATE FAIR

Lexington, Ky., Sept. 6.—John Shell, Leslie county, reputed to be the world's oldest man, will visit the State Fair in Louisville next week.

He is rounding out a week of activity here, during which thousands visited him in his little tent at the Bluegrass fair, where he raised enough money to pay off a $300 mortgage on his little mountain home.

Incidentally he celebrated his 131st birthday, made his first speech, before the Lexington Board of Trade, and took his first automobile ride. The strenuous week did not tire him. He said he never felt better in his life.

When he goes home from Louisville he will never emerge from the mountains again, he said today.

KNOCK THE CHILL

These mornings in jumping out of bed by the use of a Gas Heater. It may also be used for the bath or dining room, as our Heaters are very attractive in appearance and convenient to handle.

THEY ARE SURPRISINGLY CHEAP

PUBLIC SERVICE COMPANY
INCORPORATED

At Present Prices

OF

Pork Products, Push Pigs, Feed Supreme or Acme Hog Feed.

IT PAYS

The Acme Mills

Incorporated.

REAL VALUES

IN

REAL ESTATE

E. C. RADFORD

In Office of Wallace Insurance Agency. Phone 395.

City Bank & Trst Co.

Capital & Surplus

$210,000.00

This Bank & Trust Co.

Stands unique in Point of STRENGTH SUCCESS-EXPERIENCE—with the Composite SERVICE and trust-worthy devotion of its well known officers to all Fiduciary Administration.

They invite consultation and confidential advice in any money matters. Such is the organized and trained business of our Trust Department.

NOTED CITIZENS ENDORSE JUNIOR PEACE PROGRAM

G

"I have examined your plans with interest," writes Governor J. P. Goodrich of Indiana, "and it gives me pleasure, indeed, to endorse the proposed work of our school children to assist in relieving suffering in Europe."

V. O. Gilbert, State Superintendent of Schools for Kentucky, endorses the plan as being worth while from the material side but of greatest value from its educational side in the development of character.

IS THERE A JUNIOR RED CROSS AUXILIARY IN EVERY SCHOOL IN YOUR COUNTY?

WRITE TO THE DEPARTMENT OF JUNIOR MEMBERSHIP, LAKE DIVISION HEADQUARTERS, 2157 EUCLID AVE., CLEVELAND, OHIO, FOR THE NEW ORGANIZATION GUIDE FOR JUNIOR RED CROSS AUXILIARIES.

ONE IS SLAIN; KILLED WHILE ON DEER HUNT

Big Ammunition Dump Given Up By Germans Exploded By Unknown Cause.

Coblentz, Sept. 7.—Private Reass Madsen, Sacramento, Calif., was shot and instantly killed today by German soldiers in the neutral zone about a mile from the boundary of the Coblentz bridgehead.

Madsen and Private Bert Balsinger, of the 8th Infantry, who had been on outpost duty, were deer hunting when they encountered a German patrol of thirteen soldiers. According to Balsinger, the Germans began firing without asking an explanation as to why the two Americans were in the neutral zone.

Balsinger told the American authorities that when he and Madsen encountered the Germans he was several yards ahead of Madsen. Balsinger said he dropped his rifle as soon as he saw the Germans, who a second afterwards began to shoot at Madsen.

The Germans contend that Madsen fired at them. Balsinger declared that the Germans fired first and that if Madsen had fired he did not see him shoot or hear the shot.

Balsinger was taken prisoner by the Germans and later turned over to the American Provost Marshal Major George Cockrell, and brought to Coblentz. Madsen will be buried in the American cemetery at Coblentz.

Property valued at approximately $2,500,000, sold recently to the Americans by the Germans, was destroyed today by a series of explosions in ammunition dumps near Nieuwied. Among the material destroyed was ammunition worth $750,000, which was sold Friday to a German company for commercial purposes.

Fire followed the first explosion and destroyed about fifty buildings scattered about a forty-acre tract.

PRO-GERMAN ELEMENT LIFTING ITS HEAD HERE IN AMERICA

President Tells Sioux Falls Crowd It Is Clean-Cut Issue Between New Order and Old German Order.

Sioux Falls, S. D., Sept. 9.—Declaring that pro-Germanism again had lifted its head in this country, President Wilson declared in an address here last night that "every element of chaos" was hoping there would be "no steady hand" placed on the world affairs.

President Wilson headed a parade to the Coliseum where eight thousand people awaited him. His address here followed one at Omaha, Neb.

Although it was raining when the President's train arrived, the downtown streets were lined with crowds and a wave of cheering followed the president on his way to the Coliseum. A Shriner's band led the parade.

Gov. Peter Norbeck, a Republican, presided at the meeting. Mrs. Wilson who sat on the stage, was presented with some roses by two little girls who walked across the stage to her place while the crowd, which packed the hall, cheered. Mrs. Wilson thanked the little girls with a kiss and there were more cheers.

The president opened his address by relating how the lady who shook hands with him at a way stop today had burst into tears when she tried to tell him of her son killed in France.

This incident, said Mr. Wilson, brought home to him that the country had suffered greatly, not for a temporary advantage but for a permanent betterment of the world. In the eyes of the American boys who went across the seas, he continued, the people of Europe had seen a determination not only to defeat Germany but to see that such a thing never happened again.

The president declared that the war "was no sudden outburst" but the deliberate plan of Germany conceived years before.

"I want to tell you," said the president, "that within the last two weeks the pro-German element in the United States again has lifted its head."

This element saw a chance, he said by keeping this nation out of the league of nations, to make possible again what Germany has tried to do in the great war. It was a clean-cut issue, Mr. Wilson declared, between this new order or the old German order.

Declaring the peace treaty provision for an international labor conference would give labor a new bill of rights, the president asserted that the treaty was a "laboring man's treaty" in the sense that it was a treaty drawn up for the benefit of the common people.

The political settlements themselves, said the president, were made for the peoples concerned. He asserted that the document laid down forever the principle that no territory should ever be governed except as the people who lived there wanted it governed.

"That is an absolute reversal of history," said the president, "and it is all in the league of nations."

High taxes, a large standing army and a "military government in spirit" would be required, he said, if the United States were to follow the advice of some men and "stand by herself."

AUSTRIA VOTES TO SIGN TREATY, ADOPT PROTEST

Territorial Clauses Violate Truce
Basis, National Assembly Holds.

Vienna, Saturday, Sept. 8.—The National Assembly, by a vote of 97 to 23 decided to sign the peace treaty. The assembly, however, protested violation of Austria's right of free disposal of herself.

German Nationalists voted against signature of the treaty, while some members of the South Tyrolean party abstained from voting. The vote was taken after adoption without dissent of the Government's resolution of protest, presented by Christian Socialist Hauser, declaring territorial clause of the treaty grossly violated the national claim of self-determination and the basis on which the armistice was concluded.

"We arise once more our voices against a peace founded on brute force," said the resolution. "As one man we decline to the dividing up of our peoples into free and unfree as is done by this peace."

"We further declare that the 4,000,000 Germans forced under foreign rule will for all time insist on self-determination as the only possible basis on which the modern State may be founded."

The resolution also declared that ultimate union with Germany is an absolute necessity and expresses hope that when hatred of the war dies down this union will be consummated. It ends by placing responsibility for steeping Europe in revolution and confusion on the shoulders of the Entente and looks to the League of Nations to repair the wrong done.

MOONLIGHT SCHOOLS

The following Moonlight Schools were organized last week:

Cum Grove, Miss Flora Williams teacher.

Judd District, Miss Hazel Shopert, teacher.

Great interest was shown at both places and a promise for a still greater enrollment, although I was pleased by the remarkable interest shown by the Moonlight pupils.

Especially is the work of the teacher at Cum Grove complimented and the attendance in the moonlight school.

Those pledging this week were: Mrs. Louise Berry and Agnes Flemming, col.

The Moonlight schools permanently organized which were visited by the agent last week show splendid progress and a large attendance.

A large percentage of the teachers have pledged and will open their schools later. The usual large acreage of tobacco will prevent the majority of Moonlight schools opening before the first of October.

HERBERT CRICK,
County Illiteracy Agent

NOT MOVING DAY FOR CITY, BIG CIRCUS HERE IS ANSWER

PARADE ROUTE

At 10:30 a. m. today the Sells-Floto street parade will leave the grounds and proceed to Virginia street, to 4th street, to Main street, to 18th street, to Virginia street to 21st street and return to grounds.

The jingle of harness chains and the steady clang of shod hoofs on the pavements, the rumble of heavy wagons and the setting of groaning brakes did not indicate, as it seemed to the "stay abed" this morning that it was moving day for half the city. Ask any of the hundreds of boys and girls, ranging from 6 to 60, who were at the L. & N. railroad yards shortly after dawn when long, gaudily painted trains rolled into town. They will tell you quickly enough that all this sound and action marked the arrival of Sells-Floto Circus and its hauling to the circus grounds that today is the red letter day of all the year—"Circus Day."

For before many of us had hopped under the shower and had forgotten again to change the blade in the old safety razor, the great gray tents had been raised toward the morning sky and an army of people and animals had been fed out on "the lot," where curious throngs eyed the swift efficiency of the circus folk in amazement. No, it is not moving day for half the city, but it seemed that half the city had tumbled out of bed in order that the unloading of the trains and the building of a canvass city might not escape it. And so the circus was welcomed to town.

At 10 a. m. the "grand, free street parade" will leave the grounds for down town thoroughfares. The elephants, the "hippo," the cages of jungle beasts, the glitter and the gold of the red-coated bands—five of them—will be seen in seemingly unending procession. Then there will be novelties in plenty, it is promised; patriotic, allegorical cars, gorgeous tableaux wagons, ornately carved, and gold and silver-leaved. The camels, the clowns, the ladies in spangles, the knights on proud horses, the burros calliopes and all the wonders of the open air review of the big show are promised, as well as many more that the advance host of the circus say have never been paraded before.

The Sells-Floto performance at 2 p. m. and 8 p. m., it is stated, will present an all-feature program. Troupes from all lands will thrill and win laughter, for there are comedy performers in nearly every act, in addition to the phalanx of forty clowns—count 'em—forty! Several beautiful spectacles are also announced.

The big show opens with the spectacular extravaganza, "The Birth of the Rainbow," employing 600 people and 400 horses.

day night and which was recovered at Athens, Ala. He also had in custody four prisoners charged with taking the car, these being Will Hammonds, Bailey Hammonds, Dud Hughes and a woman named Mannie Brown.

Main's circus was in Princeton last Thursday and the car is alleged to have been taken from the circus grounds that night.

SCHOOL SOCIAL AT
NEWSTEAD HIGH SCHOOL

On next Friday evening from 8 to 11 o'clock, at Newstead High School, a school social will be held to which everybody is invited. There will be a fine program of music and refreshments will be served. A novel feature will be a beauty contest and the ugliest man contest, the victors to be awarded a cake each as a prize. Competition open to all who are present.

The Cheapest Tire
You Can Buy
Mohawk

Cheapest Because it Lasts
Longer
Buy Mohawk CORDS and FABRIC Tires.

Cayce-Yost Co.
Incorporated

STOLE FLIVVER AT CIRCUS
AND FLED TO ALABAMA

Officer Moore, of Princeton, passed through town Sunday night with a Ford automobile alleged to have been stolen at Princeton last Thurs-

For Sale!

FARMS AND CITY PROPERTY

250 acres 3 1-2 miles out on pike,
$65.00 per acre.

140 acres 4 miles south on pike,
$100 per acre.

135 acres south of city on pike,
$135 an acre.

160 acres south of city on pike,
$125 per acre.

86 acres south of city, $3,500.

145 acres south of city, finely improved.

240 acres south of city, well improved.

3 dwellings on South Main street.

4 dwellings on South Virginia St.

2 dwellings on East Seventh St.

1 garage centrally located.

5 business houses, centrally located

T. S. Knight
& Co.

Boys School Shoes

It is good business for you to keep in touch with shoe advertisements of this character.

We have just received 100 pairs of BOYS
SCHOOL SHOES, built on Munson's Army
Last, in Tan Colors.

These shoes were bought before the sharp advance in leather, and are fully $2.00 a pair under today's price.

They are built of solid leather throughout.

Price $5.00

See our Show Windows and convince yourself.

Wall & McGowan
BOOT SHOP